to put him in the back of the house.

"Over that boiler of yours?" he asked. "Not a bit of it. I'll sleep in the front of the house or not in it at all."

He owes his life to his insistence in his demand.

The owner of the hotel would never allow anyone in this boiler room. Whether this was to conceal a condition of affairs therein he does not know.

TWO BODIES COMING.

Denver, Colo., August 23. (Special)—Two bodies are to be shipped to Pueblo tonight—those of A. L. Blake and W. J. Corson. There was some doubt concerning their identity, but there can be no more uncertainty, the entire space of the hotel building having been cleared up without the finding of any more remains. The total number of bodies found has been 22.

SLAUGHTER BY KU KLUX.

Paris, Texas, August 23.—A gentleman who has just completed a tour of Delta county arrived in this city today bringing news of fresh outrages committed by the Whitecaps in the last few days. Night before last he counted sixty men armed with Winchesters and shotguns pass the house where he was staying. Every negro has left town, not waiting to sell lands or crops. On Wednesday night Jeff Cole, an aged and inoffensive negro, was called out of his house and riddled with bullets. Cole owned land and was in good circumstances. His family left next day without waiting to bury him.
