New spring and summer suits at Hobson & Gann's.

Mr. C. R. Bassett, late of Moline, Illinois, died at his room on the lower end of Santa Fe avenue yesterday afternoon. The deceased came to Colorado about four weeks since, suffering with a bronchial disease which he hoped our climate would cure. Like many others he delayed coming too long, and the change only hastened his death. It seems strange that so many persons suffering with lung and throat diseases will delay coming to Colorado until they are ready for the grave, and then leave their homes and friends to die among strangers. The effects of the dead man were turned over to the probate judge.

Yesterday noon, when the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe passenger train was backing over to the depot at South Pueblo, the sleeping car caught the telegraph wire which had been detached from the pole next to the Denver and Rio Grande train dispatcher's office, and if the wire had been stronger a wreck of the frame office would have resulted. As it was, the window frame was pulled nearly out of its position. This office is rather unlucky, having been nearly burned up, robbed, and almost wrecked all within a few months.
