FUNERAL OF MR. ABRAHAMS

Old Time Friends Escorted Remains to Last Resting Place.

One of the largest and most impressive funerals held in Pueblo for a long time was that of the late Joseph Abrahams which took place yesterday afternoon at the home of M. Studzinski, 616 west Tenth street. The house was thronged with friends and many floral tributes about the casket attested the high esteem in which the deceased was held and the sympathy of friends for the afflicted family.

At 1 o'clock M. Bergerman conducted the solemn funeral services of the Jewish faith and Judge C. J. Hart delivered a touching eulogy to Mr. Abrahams referring to his long residence in this city, to his high qualities as a citizen and man. It was the feeling tribute of an old friend to one taken off by violence in his prime. Pueblo lodge No. 99, Elks, which acted as an escort to the remains to the cemetery, arrived shortly before 2 o'clock and the members viewed the remains. Pueblo lodge No. 17, Masons, reached the house a few minutes later and took charge of the casket after having passed by for a last look at the face of one of the members of the order.

The line to the Jewish cemetery was then taken up, the pall bearers, members of the Masonic lodge, being I. W. Stanton, J. D. Miller, A. Sonneborn, M. Kohn, D. R. Greene and S. C. Gallup. At the grave the full Masonic burial service was performed by the lodge.

For Whooping Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, or Consumption, no medicine equals BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP. Price 25 and 50 cents. Trial bottles at The Baldwin Drug Co's.
