Do not put off your registration until Saturday. There will be a big rush on that day and therefore you had better not wait.

Judge Smith yesterday sentenced Will Burton to thirty days in the county jail for stealing a pair of pants from the Boston clothing store.

The venerable James Crawford died yesterday at his home on the Greenhorn. Rev. J. C. Hay goes out this morning to conduct the funeral services at 11 o'clock.

N. F. Allensworth, a prominent business man of Dallas, Texas, is in the city seeking a location. He is very well impressed by what he has seen of the city.

Secretary Bowman, of the Board of Trade, yesterday furnished Governor Adams with his credentials as a delegate from Pueblo to the Trans-Mississippi congress.

C. M. Hicklin, formerly general agent of the A., T. & S. F. railroad here, but now representing the Mallory steamship line in Denver, was calling on friends here yesterday.
