spot where the bridge had been washed out over Dry creek and said that it would cost $500 or $600 to build a new bridge.

The ordinance concerning peddlers was read for the second time. Alderman Donahue moved that the rules be suspended and the ordinance put on its final reading and the motion was carried. J. H. Mitchell, Mr. Phipps and H. F. Ruegnitz spoke on the ordinance, the first two against and Mr. Ruegnitz for the passage of the ordinance and upon motion the ordinance passed. The rules were again suspended and upon second reading the ordinance relating to the transfer of funds was passed.
