NATIVE AMERICAN

HERITAGE MONTH

November has been designated as the month to celebrate and honor the cultures, achievements and contributions of Native Americans and Alaska Natives.

PCCLD celebrates the month with events and programs, recommended reading, and an array of digital resources available to anyone with a valid library card.

Don't have a library card? Sign up for one today at any PCCLD location or sign up online at <https://catalog.pueblolibrary.org/MyAccount/SelfReg>

All Pueblo Reads Kickoff fun!

PCCLD kicked off All Pueblo Reads at Rawlings Library. More than 900 people enjoyed the Under the Sea fun on September 29. Attendees were treated to a special appearance by Ursula the Sea Witch, live music by Steve Weeks, a bounce house, as well as library and community partner booths. Look for more photos in December's program guide.

Get your caffeine fix with Pueblo Library Café by Gypsy Javas!

Pueblo City-County Library District has chosen Gypsy Javas to operate the café inside of the Robert Hoag Rawlings Public Library.

Starting November 1, the Pueblo Library Café by Gypsy Javas will sell hot and cold beverages as well as food at the Rawlings Library. The café is located on the first floor and will be open Monday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Gypsy Javas is located down the street from the library district's main branch at 119 Broadway Ave.

"I am very excited and proud to enter into a joint venture between the Pueblo City-County Library District and my small business Gypsy Javas. It is our goal to provide on-site numerous blends of coffee, espresso and lattes. We hope this endeavor will be mutually beneficial for the many patrons of the library and Gypsy Javas," Mindy Collins, Gypsy Javas owner said.

"We are thrilled about reopening the Pueblo Library Cafe at the Robert Hoag Rawlings Public Library. This is an amenity and service that we are committed to providing to our patrons and the community," Sherri Baca PCCLD's executive director said.

The Pueblo Library Café by Gypsy Javas will also offer a catering menu and will be available to cater meetings throughout the library district.
