PCCLD to launch telehealth service March 7

Pueblo City-County Library District (PCCLD) will soon provide patrons living in Rye and Colorado City with means to access telehealth services. Connect to Health at Your Library aims to provide broadband connectivity, essential equipment and training, enabling community members to connect with health professionals and access various medical e-services.

This initiative is part of a larger effort to increase access to virtual health services for rural communities thanks to a $125,000 grant from the Colorado Lt. Governor's Office

Kickoff Event

GREENHORN VALLEY LIBRARY
THURSDAY, MARCH 7

Telehealth at the Library Open House
4-6 p.m.

Ages 18 and older. Kickoff PCCLD's Telehealth at the Library service and learn how to connect virtually with healthcare professionals.

of eHealth Innovations. PCCLD is one of 15 rural libraries to receive funds to go towards the purchase of telehealth equipment.

Health Solutions Family Medicine, an award-winning healthcare provider, will offer a wide range of medical services with a focus on comprehensive, patient-centered care, to meet the health needs of the community.

Services available through this telehealth initiative include:

- Initial Consultations: Discussing symptoms and medical history with Health Solutions Family Medicine professionals.
- Health Education and Counseling: Providing valuable health advice and preventive care information.

- Mental Health Support: Access to mental health assessments and counseling sessions.
- Chronic Disease Screening and Management Advice: Guidance for managing conditions like hypertension or diabetes.
- Minor Acute Care: Consultations for non-emergency medical issues such as colds or allergies.
- Family Planning and Contraceptive Counseling, Nutrition Counseling, Pediatric Care Advice, and more.

“Healthcare and access to healthcare and health information is a critical aspect of a person's physical and mental health and well-being. The Pueblo City-County Library District is very happy to partner with the State of Colorado in bringing access to telehealth services to the Colorado City and Rye communities,” Sherri Baca PCCLD’s executive director said.

At this time, four telehealth kits are available at the Greenhorn Valley Branch Library, located at 4801 Cibola Drive in Colorado City. Each kit contains:

- A laptop
- Pulse oximeter
- Digital thermometer
- Web camera and lights
- and more

For members of the public without internet access, a Wi-Fi hotspot is included in the kits and they can check out the kit to use at home for one week. Kits are only available at the Greenhorn Valley branch library and must be returned at this location.

This initiative is supported by local partners, including Health Solutions in collaboration with the Colorado State Library, the National Library of Medicine and the American Heart Association.

Starts
March 7

Telehealth at the Library

- Connect virtually to a healthcare provider.
- Telehealth kits have the equipment needed for your appointment.
- Library staff will offer the technology assistance needed for a virtual appointment.

Pueblo City-County Library District has telehealth kits to help you connect to healthcare providers from Health Solutions- Pueblo. Telehealth kits are available for use inside Greenhorn Valley Library or may be taken home for a seven day checkout period.

Shh! Place your silent auction bid

Join Books Again Silent Auction! Do you enjoy collectible books and books of local interest? Then get ready to place your bid. Books Again customers will have the chance to bid on three to four books each month, starting March 1 and ending March 31.

How to bid:

- Come in to Books Again to place your bid - phone calls will not be accepted.
- On the final business day of the month, winners will be notified by phone.
- Winners have one week to pick up and pay for book(s).
- Books will be announced on the Books Again Facebook page and are listed below.

Get ready to place your bid: "Pueblo, A Pictorial History" by Joanne West Dodds

This book is numbered 1,128 of 1,500 printed. This book is very collectible book was published in 1982. Needless to say, I have only seen this one copy of this book at Books Again. Amazing pictures and collaborating history make this an almost priceless book.

- Starting bid is $30.

"Fighting Knives: An Illustrated Guide to Fighting Knives and Military Survival Weapons of the World" by Frederick J. Stephens, copyright 1980.

This books is listed on Amazon for $1,16.51, eBay for $42.99 and Biblio for $72.95.

- Starting bid is $20.

"Goin' Railroading – A Century on the Colorado High Iron" by Sam Speas as told to Margaret Coel, copyright 1985.

Chapter 5 – "Fast Freight to Leadville" is a nail-biting review of railroaders and their challenges. Abe Books – lists at $30 - $60, eBay is $18 – $34.99.

- Starting bid is $15.

"The Smoky Hill Trail" by Thomas Lane Curry

This book is about the heavy Concord stagecoaches. There are 15 beautiful prints of these stagecoaches in the book. All are in pristine condition and suitable for framing. This would make a great Father's Day gift, or a gift for those fond of western art. Copyright 1976 to coincide with America's be-centennial. Amazon lists at $35.

- Starting bid is $20.
