ge life. The show itself filmed in the latest de- t of color photography. ed as a gorgeous treat for as well as for the ear.

LO'S AIRLINE TO ICH NEW SERVICE

(inued from Page One)

center of this district, and leved that within a short fter the inauguration of on the two lines, interest on will be greatly increased w line to the east will in- egular stops at Denver, Springs, Pueblo, Lamar, City, Wichita, Topeka and City, the flying time be- re and the eastern termi- about four and a half he line to El Paso will in- ops at Albuquerque and , N. M., with the flying m here to El Paso prac- e same as to Kansas City. Super-Universal Fokker es, of six-passenger ca- oach, will be used by the on the new lines, it was d. Schedules of arrival and of planes will be an- in a few days. Philbin ed to come to Pueblo in the opening of the new rday.

ent with the announce- inauguration of the new was announced by Herbert Jr., chief radio engineer Western Air Express, that ted to have two-way radio communication in opera-

BIRTHS

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Gibert, 1516 Palmer avenue, a son Aug. 5, at Corwin hospital.

DAVIS MORTUARY
Masonic Temple
Broadway at Evans Avenue

McFATE, Mrs. M. Louise, age 77 years, resident of Pueblo for the past 40 years, passed away Monday evening, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. T. Hopkins, 218 West Evans avenue. She is survived by one son, D. R. McFate, of Los Angeles, Calif. Mrs. McFate was a member of the Mesa Presbyterian church. The body is being cared for by the Davis mortuary.

WATKINS, Alsolom V., age 60 years, died at the family home at Penrose, Colo., Sunday, Aug. 4. He had been a resident of Colorado for the past 24 years. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Jane Watkins, of Penrose, and the following children: Mrs. W. J. Vallely, Mrs. H. E. McFarlane, Mrs. R. H. McDonald, and Ivan L. Watkins, all of Pueblo; Mrs. Sina Belle Moore, and Orville V. Watkins, both of Los Angeles, Calif.; four brothers, S. E. Watkins, of Anthony, Kan.; J. O. Watkins, Helena, Okla.; George Watkins, Long Beach, Calif., and John Watkins, of Fullerton, Calif. He was a member of the Presbyterian church of Anthony, Kan., and M. W. A., No. 7111, of Pueblo. Funeral announcements later by the Davis mortuary.

Funeral services for Mrs. Laura F. Tripp took place at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, Aug. 5, from St. Paul's Methodist church, 902 South Union avenue. Rev. Francis L. Geyer conducted the services. Mrs. Anna Kidd and Miss equipped for tation of this She has ac brogue to ma the more con

James Ha Colleen, com smile and splendid abili acterization leen he sings well as playi violin.

Claude Gil Homans furn their parts Irishmen. A O'Brien, Robe and others roles.

"Climbing natural col Mayer colorto Charles King Melody." Fe organ varieti reel are incl argund progr

REGIONA BENEFIC

Southern C Kansas valley ited by rains fell in many Monday nigh rain, but it d were reported an early ho From the gen been visited territory farm told benefit.