ALLEY PRODUCTS.

y for a free Display
in October.

LD LAST NIGHT.

Revive in a Measure
air Such as Was For-Canon City Promises
splay—Other Places to fair way to have an rricultural and horti-

this fall which will from Arkansas valley
ing of those interested s held in C. F. Ray's
nion avenue last night
ing will be held Mon-
idea is to revive the ate Fair association
nual fair in Pueblo.
kind has been at-
fall of 1891 and the new association will

BODIES BROUGHT HOME.

Remains of W. J. Corson and A. L. Blake Reach Pueblo.

The bodies of W. J. Corson and A. L. Blake, the Pueblo victims in the Gumry hotel disaster at Denver last Sunday night, were brought to the city on the Gulf train yesterday afternoon. Mr. Blake's remains were removed to the undertaking rooms of McMahon & Collier, where funeral services were held at 4 o'clock.

Rev. S. B. Warner officiated, Rev. Charles T. Wheeler and Rev. John C. Hay assisting. Music was furnished by a quartette consisting of Mrs. Selleck, Miss Warner, Miss Dickerman and Mr. Loor. The pall bearers were I. W. Stanton, Paul Wilson, A. J. McQuaid, C. L. Hill, B. F. Baldwin and J. E. Collier. The interment was at Riverview beside the body of the late Charles H. Blake, father of the unfortunate young man.

Mr. Corson's body remained at the Union depot until 11 o'clock last night when it went east over the Santa Fe to Mills Falls, Wis., accompanied by Mrs. Corson and her two children.

HOW'S THIS!

We offer one hundred dollars reward for any case of catarrh that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

TOWN

New carpets, n drapery goods a
pet and furniture
The Golden Ea
line of fall unde
will please you See ad. first page
Black dress goo
goods—these are looking for now,
lots of them at ve
The Crews-Begg
the balance of its
as figured dimitie
at 5 cents a yard
other great barg find enumerated i
ment on the first Everybody knov
vet is the best w Frank Pryor has designs of Wilton beautiful. If you
pet it will pay yo
lovely stock befor
The B. & O. peo
autumn dress fabr
the ladies who fal
the line they sho
a rare treat. The plete and their p
for they buy for c
and make closer p
This week the G