A SUDDEN DEATH.

George R. Buckey Dies Suddenly at His Home in La Junta.

George R. Buckey, one of La Junta's most prominent and respected citizens, died very unexpectedly at his home on Kansas street Wednesday, shortly after noon, from heart failure. His sudden death was a shock to the entire community. During the morning Mr. Buckey had been around town as usual, and his appearance gave no indication that he was not enjoying his usual good health. He had just recovered from an attack of la grippe, and was apparently as well as ever. Since his death, however, it has developed that he has been suffering from heart trouble for some time, and was far from well.—La Junta Tribune.
