RESIDENCE LOTS

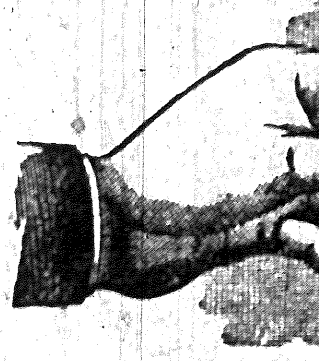
EXTRA INDUCEMENTS

GIVEN TO PARTIES WHO WILL

LD RESIDENCES.

OLORADO COAL AND IRON DEVELOPMENT CO.

No. 15, Graham-Wescott Block.



DO Y

WAN

We ha
we wa

100 PIEC

If you save y

TEAS AN

Ca

Gran

M

PUEB

Ava
Lag all competit

AVENUE LINE.

ailway Company Will ut to Bessemer.

he proposed street car 'e avenue to Bessemer ted by the Pueblo City ny. The line will be nd a half in length and eighborhood of $15,000, nas been subscribed as a will be built this sum- w soon can not be said market remains in its .

---

y $5 per week at Fifth

Carthy, the undertakers McCarthy blk. Tel. 169.

---

like a nice steak that r mouth, ring up the g company. They can

---

THEIR PRAISES.

looked over our line of

ANN MERCANTILE CO.

MAKES THE PACE.

r on Record Made for day Only.

BORN.

HINCH.—Thursday, June 1, 1893, to Mr. and Mrs. William F. Hinch, a daughter.

DIED.

DIVELBISS.—Thursday, June 1, 1893, in this city, Mrs. Ann Marie Divelbiss, aged 82 years.

Funeral from her late residence in Carlile place Saturday at 2 p. m. and interment in Riverview.

LEDWITH.—Thursday, June 1, 1893, at the family residence, No. 1308 West Thirteenth street, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Ledwith.

Funeral from the house at 2 p. m. today.

POSHKA.—Thursday, June 1, 1893, the one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Poshka.

MARRIED

TANNER-THEAM—Thursday evening, June 1, 1893, at 8 o'clock, at the residence of Rev. N. L. Reynolds, Charles T. Tanner and Miss Anna Theam.

Mr. and Mrs. Tanner are keeping house on East Abriendo avenue.

Cheap Rates on the Rio Grande.

The Denver & Rio Grande railroad company announces round trip rates of one and one-fifth fares on the certificate plan for the following occasions. May 25 and 26 to Trinidad for the Gray Park Driving club races. May 27 and 28 to Boulder, commencement exercises of the State University. May 31 and June 1 to Denver to attend the state convention of Christain Endeavor societies. June 4 and 5, meeting of the Grand chapter Eastern Star and Grand Commandery Knights Templar at Denver. For limit