Groundbreaking was underfoot in August in Colorado City for the soon-to-be-built Greenhorn Valley Library. Community leaders, library board members and architects alike were in attendance during a celebration that begins the process of building three new Pueblo County libraries.

Circulation Manager, Janina Goodwin, shows a patron how to use the self check machines.

2013 ACHIEVEMENTS

- Kicked off a $6.1 million capital campaign to raise money and begin construction of three new libraries to better serve the Pueblo community and surrounding areas
- Improved library services with the implementation of self check and Automated Material Handling machines

Signature programs

SUMMER READING CLUB

PCCLD's award-winning Summer Reading Program continued to break records! More than 28,000 young people participated in Dig into Reading, a 4 percent increase over 2012. The program took place in June and July, but kids were asked to read all summer and log their reading time. Prizes were awarded to each child who read and recorded it on the log. Events this year included the Wild Rumpus Circus, dissecting owl pellets, making ice cream, growing crystals, and a poetry slam, to name a few.

READ OUT LOUD!

The fourth annual Read OUT LOUD! celebration took place in March. This year focused on Galileo's Journal by Jeanne K. Pettanati, and featured a Pueblo visit by the author. Nearly 1,400 kids came to see the author at several events hosted at the library, and an additional 2,000 students read the book in their classrooms. This program is endowed by the Friends of the Library.

LEFT: Author Jeanne K. Pettanati answers questions about her book Galileo's Journal at a Read Out LOUD! event in March.

Denver-based Catfish Kray Blues Band entertained guests at the 2013 Booklovers Blacktie Ball.

ALL PUEBLO READS 2013

All Pueblo Reads concluded its ninth year. The 2013 project featured Kathryn Stockett's book, The Help. Participation totalled 37,460 for a total increase of 15 percent from 2012.

TOTAL EXPENDITURES $1,438,069

DEFICIENCY OF REVENUE UNDER EXPENDITURES $ (1,162,411)

Note 1: Revenues and Expenditures are reported for each of the governmental fund types. Fund-based financial data is focused on reporting current financial resources. These are resources that are generally available for and spent on current year activities. The Library District maintains a General Fund for operational revenues and expenditures and a Capital Projects Fund for facilities improvements and expansion.

Note 2: The Statement of Net Assets reports current and long-term financial resources of the Library District as a whole, representing the Library District's Balance Sheet for primary government activities. Net assets invested in capital assets represent the net book value of facilities, furniture, equipment, computers, vehicles, software, books and audiovisual materials. Restricted net assets represent emergency reserve requirements. Unrestricted net assets represent cash and other net assets available for operational expenses and capital improvements. Amounts reported are net of applicable debt.

10-YEAR HISTORY GENERAL FUND REVENUES AND EXPENDITURES

Financial information in this report is derived from the Library District's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR). The Library District prepares its financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). However, GAAP requires certain financial presentation and disclosures that are not included in this report. Conforming reports are presented in the CAFR and include a greater amount of financial detail, individual fund statements, and budget data.

Complete general purpose financial statements, as well as the Independent Auditor's Report, are included in the Library District's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report. This report can be obtained by contacting the Pueblo City-County Library District Finance Department at 719-562-5652, or visiting the web site at www.pueblolibrary.org.

2013 Key Data

Teenagers loosen up before their Zumba and smoothies class held in January at the Library @ the Y (where Y stands for yummy). After 35 minutes of dancing, the participants cooled down by drinking smoothies of their own making. Who knew that being healthy could so be fun, smooth and tasty?

The InfoZone at the Rawlings Library hosted the Harry Potter Party in August. Isaiah Longdo-Molina won a Harry Potter book set after completing the Harry Potter challenges.

Friends of the Library

The purpose of the Friends of the Pueblo City-County Library District is to help the library system make educational, informational, cultural and recreational services available to the public. The Friends have existed for 52 years, and have given more than $600,000 to the library during that time. Accomplishments for 2012-13 are listed below.

Activities

EDUCATIONAL AND RECREATIONAL

- Were the judges for the over 2,500 entries in the Scary Story Contest. The winners received a booklet of the winning stories and a gift certificate.
- Presented Books Again gift certificates to the poetry authors at the Library's Poetry Contest awards ceremony.
- Sponsored the Friends of the Library Youth Writing Contest.
- Provided the gift certificates for the winners of the Create Your Own Dr. Seuss Contest.
- Sponsored the eighth Pueblo Girl Essay Contest. Fourth and fifth grade girls submitted entries.
- Donated $6,500 to the Pueblo City-County Library District's Summer Reading program.
- Donated $4,000 to the youth reading program.
- Donated $11,500 to the Library

District for the All Pueblo Reads program.

- Awarded a $3,000 scholarship to library district employees seeking a Masters of Library Science.
- Donated $22,000 to the Pueblo Library Foundation campaign for three new branch libraries.
- Handed out over 300 free books to children during the Annual Kids Day parade

INFORMATIONAL AND CULTURAL

- The Project Selection Committee of the Friends awarded funds to four grant requests from the Rawlings Library which totaled $12,000.
- Provided $3,000 towards the printing and postage for News & Events. The newsletter is an important communication tool for informing the community of library programs, new services, and Friends' activities. The newsletter reached over 12,000 people and organizations last year.

- Selected Mary Simmons as their honoree for the 31st Pueblo Women's History Week celebration.
 - Held the Annual Meeting
- To make these contributions possible, the Friends raise funds through memberships and the sale of used books.
- Memberships totaled 955
 - Books Again, the FOL used book store, had gross sales in 2013 of over $105,000 and 73% of net sales after sales taxes went to benefit the library district.
 - During 2013 volunteers at Books Again logged over 7,748 hours in operating the store.
 - Since Books Again opened in July of 2005 over $434,000 in profits have been provided to the Friends of the Library to fund projects at the Pueblo Library District.

Winners of the Dr. Seuss Create Your Own Character contest, and their families, gathered in April for the awards ceremony.
