THE GRAND.

The only first class hotel in Pueblo.

INQUEST HELD.

Death of Angelo Greco Held to Be Purely Accidental.

Yesterday morning Coroner Fitzpatrick held an inquest on the body of Angelo Greco, an Italian who was killed last Saturday by a Santa Fe switch engine at the Philadelphia smelter. The jury found, according to the evidence that the killing was purely accidental and that the train men were in no wise to blame. The funeral of Greco will take place from McCarthy & Co's undertaking parlors at 9:30 this morning and from St. Patrick's church at 10 o'clock.

Cuff links and blouse sets cheap. Cornwell's.