George R. Wendling is generceded to be America's greatest orator. He will deliver the re in the Lyceum course, Wedevening, April 8. Admission Reserved seats, box office.

OUR BIRTH RIGHT.

es of timber and stone land e in the state of Colorado. Evn, male or female, entitled to eritance worth thousands of each. Prospect holes no barntry. Complicated land office a specialty.

J. H. THOMAS,
and Office Attorney, No. 241 Union avenue, Pueblo, Colo.

m suits cheaper than ever, at & Stingleys.

THEY ARE HERE.

& Davis have just opened a line of those famous $1.95 tan shoe that other dealers ask 2.50 for every day in the week. ine today. All styles of toe s of last.

LY A FEW LEFT.

want a copy of the new city now is the time to get it. . Room 19, Bergerman block. N. H. BOWMAN, Publisher.

M THE GREAT MEDIUM.

public seance tonight in Rivll. Probably his last meet't fail to see him. 15c.

TENTION, K. OF P.

bers of Pueblo lodge No. 52, are ordered to be at McMaller's undertaking parlors at oday to attend the funeral te brother, Richard Lloyd. rothers are also requested to y order of

F. E. PHELPS, C. C.
PERRY, K. of R. & S.

& Fitzpatrick, undertakers mers. 326 So. Union. 'Phone.

OTEL ARRIVALS.

Pariss: Sol Smith, Trinidad:

50c.

Lawrence L. Ernst,

123 W. FOURTH ST.

MARRIED.

HUDSPETH — COATES — Saturday, April 4, 1896, at the home of the bride's brother, George H. Coates, 931 Routt avenue, James Edward Hudspeth and Miss Mary Alberta Coates, Rev. J. J. Keeler officiating.

DIED.

GREEN—Saturday, April 4, 1896, of pneumonia, John Green, aged 40 years.

The body will be shipped to Philadelphia for interment.

The manager of the Grand opera house received the gratifying word by wire from Denver that the Tavary Grand Opera company will give the great double bill here of "Lucia d Lammermoor" and "Cavaliera Rusticana," a programme that is only given in the largest cities. There will be no advance in prices for this extra treat.

George R. Wendling's lecture upon "The Man of Galilee is a literary event. No other American prepares for the platform with the same thoroughness, in the same spirit, by the same methods; hence his power. In this lecture he is at his best in every regard, treating the greatest of historic and classic themes with the patience of genius and the power of art which renders everything classic popular.

No orator in America more nearly approaches Wendell Phillips, the silver-tongued king of the platform, in earnestness, in fearlessness, in platform presence, and in powerful and thrilling oratory, than does George R. Wendling, who will be in this city and deliver the last lecture in the Lyceum