COLORADO HISTORIC NEWSPAPERS COLLECTION
Experience Colorado as It Happened
Help | Register | Log in
Support CHNC

<Back to search result list

Colorado Weekly Chieftain, March 21, 1878

Browse this title PDF of this issue (4.99 MB)

Landreth's garden and field seeds at Hyde's.

The Kansas Pacific railroad is closed for repairs.

Attention is invited to the cattle brand of Fred. Walsen.

The rolling mill turned out about twenty tons of rails yesterday.

All kinds of agricultural implements for sale at Hyde's.

Please glance under the head of new to-day, the matter is very interesting.

100 pounds each of timothy and blue grass seed just in at Thompson's.

Some more of those elegant hangin library lamps at J. D. Miller's.

Passenger travel on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe is rapidly increasing.

Dave Johnson, the man interviewed by the Garland vigilantes, is reported to be in Denver.

A fine assortment of Catholic prayer books at S. D. Snyder's book store. Orders by mail promptly attended to.

Mr. Charles A. Cook, formerly receiver of the United States land office in this city, died at Hot Springs, Arkansas, on Monday.

Judge William G. Blackwood died at the residence of Mr. A. Ruder, in Garland, on Sunday afternoon last. He was about forty years of age.

Mr. J. K. Doolittle is about to sell out his stock of dry goods in Denver at auction.

Renne's Nervine mixed with molasses and water is excellent for colds, sore throat and chills. wtf

An insane man from the northern part of the state was sent east via the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe yesterday.

One hundred and fifty men and sixty teams are at work on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe grade between Trinidad and Willow creek.