Dec. 4, 1998, at his
vices, 10 a.m. Tues-
8, 1998, St. Paul Lu-
urch in Sugar City.
noon until 6 p.m. t Griffy Family Fu-pel in Ordway. Me-
o Arkansas Valley
his church may be of the funeral home.

iee, 26, of Manzano-
. 4, 1998, in an acci-
Crowley County.
2 p.m. Wednesday,
Crowley Community
urch followed by cre-
ie casket will not be emorials for his chil-
be sent to the U S a Junta or through home.

OF THANKS

of Frances (Nana) B. would like to express
gratitude to all our nds, neighbors, and
afe customers, who
flowers, food, cards,
ons (Cancer & Dia-
) Your kindness will
emembered.

IEMORIAM

nita Jacobs
ppy Birthday

Walter Gonzales. Arrangements pending.

Elmer L. Vaughan, 85, passed away Dec. 5, 1998. Survived by his wife, Mabel; three sons; one daughter; grandchildren; two sisters; three brothers; and many friends. Preceded in death by his mother and father, two brothers and one sister. Mr. Vaughan was an active member at Pleasantview Baptist Church. Funeral service. 10 a.m. Tuesday, Imperial Funeral Home Chapel. Interment, Imperial Memorial Gardens. Visitation, noon until 5 p.m. today and 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Monday. Family will receive friends at Pleasantview Baptist Church following the interment at Imperial Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

Nick Cabral Sr.
On Your Birthday

Father,
I saw a tree without any leaves
And realized that you were gone.
I heard the silence in the air
And there was no laughter there.
The silly things you used to say and do, brought a smile to my heart
Like the sunshine on a quiet lake.
I know I am not alone when Mom