

All Pueblo Reads 2014: The Paris Wife by Paula McLain

The 2014 All Pueblo Reads project featured The Paris Wife by Paula McLain. Companion titles for other ages included The Invention of Hugo Cabret by Brian Selznick for teens and the Madeline series by Ludwig Bemelmans for younger readers. The project featured 141 events and activities, held with 27 community partners. All programs, events and activities tied in with themes of the book, and included lectures on the 1920s and several aspects of French culture, a Chautauqua performance featuring Zelda Fitzgerald, a theatrical performance called The Madams of Central Colorado, photographic exhibits of Ernest Hemingway's stomping grounds and much more. A special collaboration with the Sangre de Cristo Arts Center allowed for an in-depth exploration of artists Picasso, Matisse and Chegal.
