2014 Create Your Own Dr. Seuss Character Contest

The Pueblo City-County Library District is pleased to announce the winners and honorable mentions of the 2014 Create Your Own Dr. Seuss Character Contest. Students, from kindergarten to high school, were invited to draw their own Dr. Seuss characters and write a brief description of their character.

The students, whose characters were selected, were invited to read their character description at an awards reception at the library. Winners received a $10 gift certificate, and honorable mention recipients received a $5 gift certificate to Books Again Bookstore, courtesy of the Friends of the Library. The judges for the Create Your Own Dr. Seuss Character Contest were Friends of the Library board members, Doris Kester and Sherry Wingo and Pueblo City-County Library District staff Janina Goodwin, Charles Hutchins, Sara Schwartz and Michelle Vigil.

There were a total of 1,671 entries with 264 kindergarten students, 388 first grade students, 331 second grade students, 307 third grade students, 72 fourth grade students, 170 fifth grade students, 137 middle school students, and 2 high school students.

The library wishes to thank everyone who entered the contest and the teachers and media specialists who encouraged them to participate. We look forward to your entries again next year.

3-Headed Mermaid

My colorful creature is called the 3-Headed Mermaid. Each of them has their very own power. The first one was born with the power of water, the second fire and the third one weather. Together they are usable. That concludes my creature.

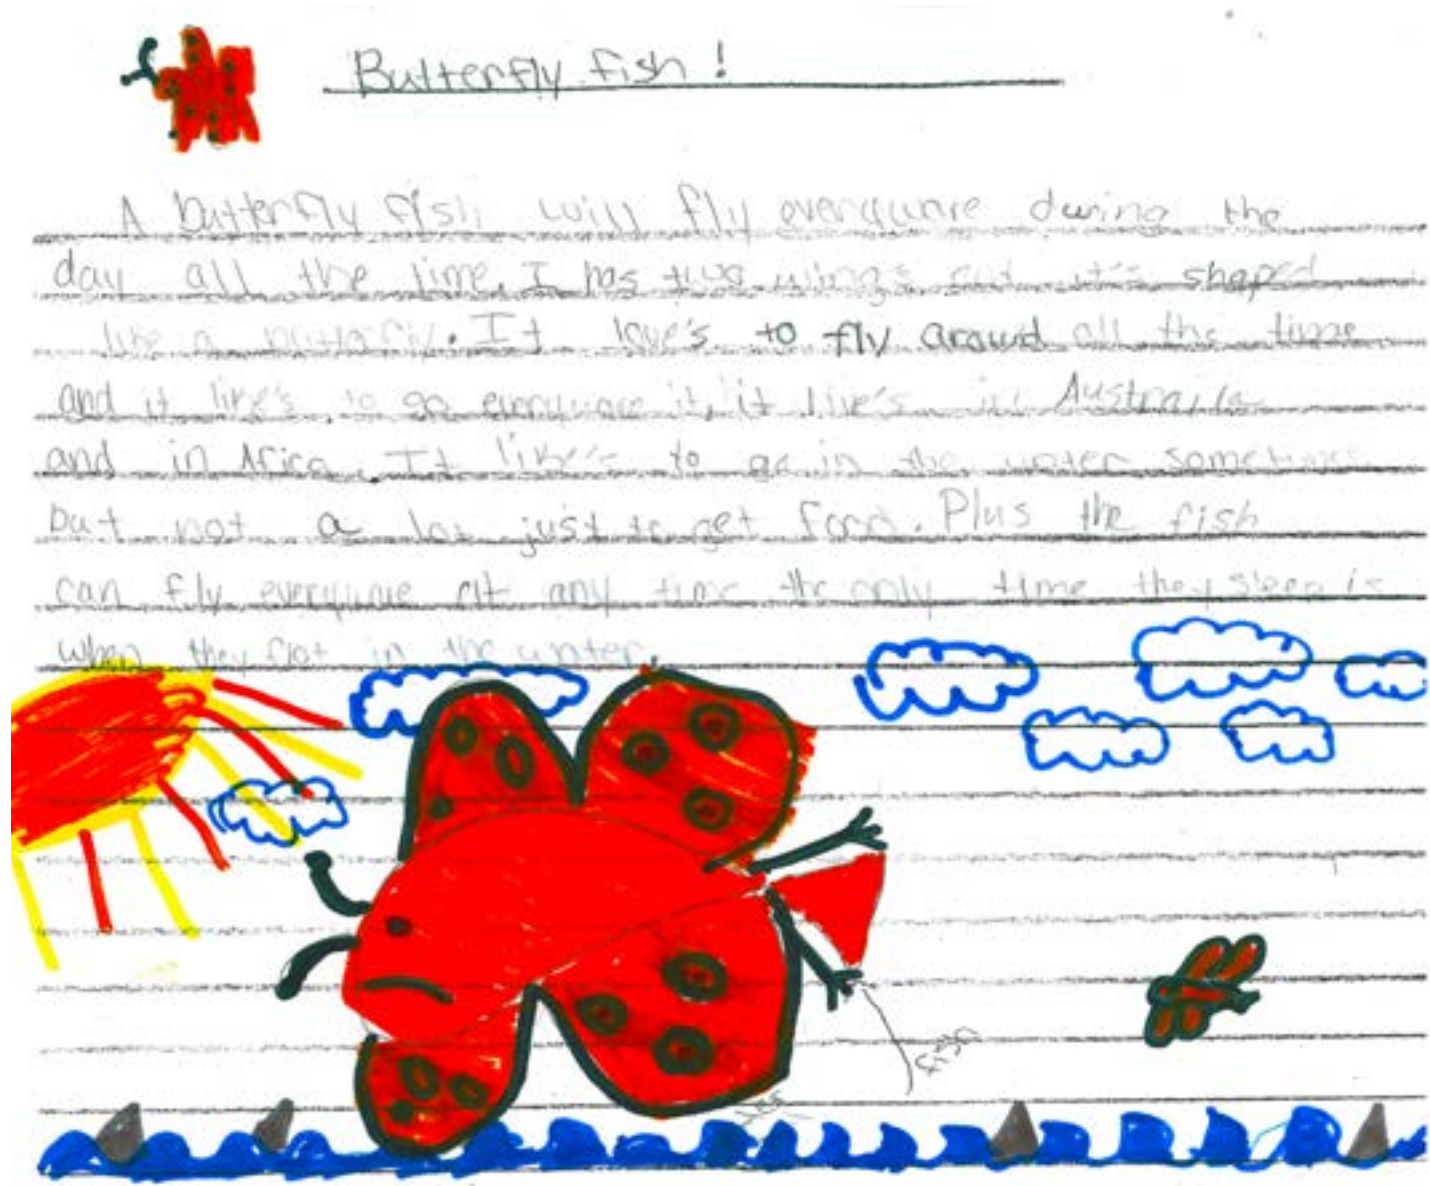

Michaela Fairbain
2nd Place - 4th Grade
Heroes K-8 Academy – Ms. Tritten

Hanother and Jalsems

This mysterious creature and his minions live deep in dark caves, found in the steepest of mountains. He and his minions are double until disturbed by humans. The jalsems guard their king, the Hanother. He summons his minions by screeching. His minions, the jalsems, are always two neon colors and their king, the Hanother, is always three colors. Red or blue eye sockets, green or purple body and a yellow or orange body. They all hunt at night and only eat whale blubber. They are odd creatures.

Savannah Baca
3rd Place - 4th Grade
Desert Sage Elementary School – Mr. Maez

Butterfly Fish

A butterfly fish will fly everywhere during the day all the time. It has two wings and it is shaped like a butterfly. It loves to fly around all the time and it likes to go everywhere. It lives in Australia and Africa. It likes to go in the water sometimes but not a lot, just for food. Plus the fish can fly everywhere at anytime. The only time they sleep is when they float in the water.

Madeleine Maldonado
1st Place - 5th Grade
Bessemer Academy – Mrs. Bachicha

Rainbow Merog

Rainbow Merog is half mermaid and half dog. She guards all life in the sea and gives the sea creatures color with glee! The sea stars are orange, the eels are yellow, the sea horses are blue and the oceans stay mellow! Take care of the oceans, she loves them so much! She gives everything she loves her special rainbow touch!

Makenzie Baca

2nd Place - 5th Grade
Bessemer Academy – Mr. Casarez

Boogle

Boogle is a rare creature that lives in the forest. But she is not as tough as the Chuck Norris. She is small and round and is quite cute but put her in cold and she'll go koo-kute. The forest is warm with a nice scent but it still might have one big dent. Her defense mechanism is unknown but who really cares because she's as cute as a cone. Anyway, she is very weak and she has one tiny leak. She sheds too much and tweets too loud. She can't even bare to have bowed out loud. Where she lives is very big and that place is called lig-a-dig-gid. Her favorite colors are purple, blue, black, pink and green because those are the colors in which she is seen. It is time to go and I am so very sorry, in Boogles language it is ka-kary.

Hunter Gaebler Dakota

3rd Place - 5th Grade
Sunset Park Elementary School – Mrs. Ridpath

Munchkaroo

Dr. Seuss, Dr. Seuss there is something out there. “Hush my sweet, sweet daughter, don’t be scared it is just a Munchkaroo in the air, jumping here, jumping there, always jumping in the air!” “There is nothing there any more, so go back to bed my sweet before, they come hopping through your night, jumping here jumping there, Munchkaroo in the air.” Now my daughters fast asleep, I hear noise go, “Peep, peep peep.” What is that I hear, the voices of Munchkaroo, jumping in my living room, hopping, leaping over chairs, couch and table in the air, Munchkaroo everywhere. Hopping in the kitchen there, from counter, stove and kitchen chair, flipping, leaping in the air, hopping now down the stairs. In the playroom bouncing high, with toys there playing watching them fly, flip and flop they peep with joy, through hula hoops their favorite toy. Up the stairs and through the rooms, the Munchkaroo bound in twos, stopping only to bounce my shoes. Out the door they jump and peep, with glee and joy on their happy slappy floppy feet, the Muchkaroo bound away, to us they may return some other quiet summer day.

Courtney Danae Lee
1st Place - Middle School
Corwin International Magnet School – Mr. Mikasa

Bertram
Bertram loved the color blue. Oh how he loved every shade in the hue. From indigo beans and cornflower glue. Bertram couldn't think of anything that wasn't blue. Including the morning sky with a shade so light. To the deepest darkest blue of the night. His favorite pie was rooberry, of course. He even rode a teal blue marshmallow horse. He liked raspberry zoodles and blue aqua poodles. Yes this Bertram loved that color blue. Every color, every shade of that beautiful hue.

John Owens
2nd Place - Middle School
McClelland School – Nancy Grant

Mr. Skittles

Mr. Skittles is man that's made of skittles and he goes to childrens hospitals and when he slaps his body it falls apart for the children to eat the Skittles and he makes them laugh. Then his body grows back and he goes to another hospital.

Mr. Skittles
Mr. Skittles is a man that's made of Skittles and he goes to childrens hospitals and when he slaps his body it falls apart for the children to eat the Skittles and he makes them laugh. Then his body grows back and he goes to another hospital.

Thea Rodriguez
3rd Place - Middle School
Connect Charter School – Karyn Smith

Fluff
This is Fluff. She is one inch tall. She is very clumsy and always manages to fall. Fluff resembles a lion but is the color of bubblegum. From the top of her blanket like fur to the bottom of her rainbow tail, Fluff is as happy as can be and loves to have fun with all of her chums.

Evan Ward
1st Place - High School
Pueblo West High School – Mrs. Wilson

Super Cyclone
Super Cyclone has many special characteristics that make him spectacular. Initially, he is very kind. Super Cyclone is always very respectful because respect is a way of life at his home, Pueblo West High School. However, Super Cyclone’s strongest trait is balance. His circular winds allow him to balance school, sports, family and community service. This allows him to be very successful in many aspects of life. Clearly, Super Cyclone is a very unique Dr. Seuss character.

Natja Melendez

2nd Place - High School

Pueblo West High School – Mrs. Wilson

Tiny Blueberry Boy

This is Tiny Blueberry Boy. He ate blueberries everyday for every meal. He ate so many that he eventually turned into one. Before he was a normal, cute, nine year old boy. Now, after eating so many blueberries, he is a tiny blueberry boy and is only an inch and a half tall. Also, Tiny Blueberry Boy has blue hair and eyes, purple skin and is very chubby. Oh, and just saying, his favorite snack is blueberries. Once again this little boy is named Tiny Blueberry Boy.

Squirm Worm
Squirm Worm is as firm as a very bad germ. He always wears a hat because of his horrible perm, which causes him to squirm when he shoots a firework of a baby worm.

Vianet Reyna

Honorable Mention - 4th Grade
Heroes K-8 Academy – Ms. Tritten

LOL

LOL likes to make people laugh, cheerful and happy. He is colorful because he comes from the rainbow. That is my Dr. Seuss character.

George James

Honorable Mention - 5th Grade
North Mesa Elementary School – Mrs. Swanson

Foo Faa

The Foo Faa is a fuzzy little ball. It looks soft but it is very, very soft. It looks cute but it will bite you. It can turn into a ball and roll around. It lives mainly in vacuum cleaners but it can live anywhere. Its hair is curly. They are all shapes and sizes. They can be any color.

Dominick Castro

Honorable Mention - 5th Grade
Sunset Park Elementary School – Mrs. Terry

Want to be Unicorn

The Want to be Unicorn is a fascinating creature. He is part turtle, fox, poodle, elephant, cat, bear and unicorn. His talents are hiding in his shell, running fast, vaporizing its enemies. His elephant ears help his super hearing from distances from around globe. His borrowed unicorn horn will grant wishes if you can dance to the cupid shuffle.

Allie Jones

Honorable Mention - 5th Grade
Sunset Park Elementary School – Mrs. Ridpath

Party Cloud

Party Cloud is the craziest cloud of them all. He is an amazing friend to all. He sits up high in the sky. He will make you laugh rainbows. He is the #1 rapper in Clouddtopia. He has his own style of confetti and music. He recently won a Wammy award for his smash hit, Cloudy and I Know It. Party Cloud looks like a big fluffy bowl of taffy. His eyes twinkle as if they were stars. With his smile of gold he melts your eyes. But he has no limbs or thighs. When all the other clouds are blocking the sun, Party Cloud turns on his party lights and out shines the sun and all the stars! He is a new upcoming artist in classical music. I know you're thinking a cloud named Party Cloud should not be singing classical music but ever since his father's death he has picked it up. His music brings the clouds of Clouddtopis so much joy the president of the sky, Clomaoba, offered him a job as president! Party Cloud lives over Pueblo with his 24 cloud brothers and 23 cloud sisters, 48 cloud siblings including Party Cloud. Party Cloud is one of the coolest clouds you will meet. This is Party Cloud.

Natalie Isadora Melendez Nieves

Honorable Mention - 5th Grade
Desert Sage Elementary School – Mrs. Mares

Volcano Baby

Volcano Baby will blow your mind away if you were his friend because of this. He is the only one in the world. He is very young but other monsters think he is mean because of how he looks. He was born in lava. His family is the opposite of him because he was adopted. But when he wants to see them he must power down. He always loved helping dead grass grow. Everyday he would have the same drea. The dreams were about being thankful for what you have because one day you won't have it. Those are things about Volcano Baby. You can see why he would blow your mind away.

Mary Sanchez

Honorable Mention - 5th Grade
Sunset Park Elementary School – Mrs. Ridpath

BL

He is 1,000,000 years old today. He is very furry, his fur that sticks out is multi color, the colors are turquoise, blue, hot pink and neon pink. His skinny legs are purple. He is only a head and legs and one eye which has six red veins and two turquoise veins and the rest of his eye is yellow. He has orange arms with blue polka dots on it. He has a cane and it's turquoise. He wears a name tag of his name because he forgets his name which makes sense given the age.

Taylor Del Duca

Honorable Mention - Middle School
McClelland School – Nancy Grant

Kuloolioo

The Kuloolioo is a magical creature that is rarely seen. They use the crystals around them to grant the wishes of children. If a kid wishes for something hard enough, a Kuloolioo just might appear to grant it. Each time a child gets their wish without the help of a Kuloolioo, the Kuloolioo's power increases and their color brightens.

Zoe Holman

Honorable Mention - Middle School
McClelland School - Nancy Grant

Maraniminas

They are the size of cats but are far more intelligent. They constantly wander around, driven by curiosity but their tails cause an impenetrable fog so they are rarely seen. The females are flame colored and the males are different blues. They travel in pairs.

Paige Phillips

Honorable Mention - Middle School
Swallows School – Ms. Simonich

Swiggity Swooty

He has the need for dancing. He has been dancing the night away! Every place he goes everyone is always smiling! He has a red little bowtie and it gives him happy and cheer. He is sad when he can't find his red bow. Deep down he is sometimes sad because of the loss of his red bowtie. But soon after an hour of searching he always finds it and is back to being super happy and cheerful. His orange complexion shows that no matter what, he will always be happy, even when he can't find his red bowtie or when people judge his dancing.

Sommerset Wolnick

Honorable Mention - Middle School
Swallows School – Ms. Simonich

Kinlow

He is very self conscious. He never uses his gray wings to fly, for he is scared his light yellow would get messed up or of course his brilliantly colored feathers on his head. The boy Kinlows have blue and green feathers but the girl Kinlows have pink and orange feathers. They have bright yellow beaks and white puff at the end of his tail. They definitely stand out in the secret forest of Fozzaroo. The Kinlows are peaceful, as long as you don't touch them. They start to throw a big loud fit. The Kinlows are fabulous creatures.

Erianna Sorensen

Honorable Mention - Middle School

Marvin the Bibilar

He is colorful and very furry. He has hair that looks like they could be antlers but trust me, it's hair. He has always been mistaken for an alligator judging by its face. He has always wanted to be a hairstylist but nobody would hire him because of his hair. To calm himself when he has had a bad day, he likes to watch the sunset. One day he was walking along and he saw a for sale sign on a door that was a shop about to be closed down. He bought it and turned that shop into a salon where all of the town's people get their hair done.
