Create Your Own Dr. Seuss Character Contest

The Pueblo City-County Library District is pleased to announce the winners and honorable mentions of the 2015 Create Your Own Dr. Seuss Character Contest. Students, from kindergarten to high school, were invited to draw their own Dr. Seuss character and write a brief description of their character.

The students, whose characters were selected, were invited to an awards ceremony at the library. Winners received a $10 gift certificate, and honorable mention recipients received a $5 gift certificate to Books Again Bookstore, courtesy of the Friends of the Library. All students who participated received a certificate of achievement. The judges were Friends of the Library board members Monica Ayala, Beth Bryant, Doris Kester, Doreen Martinez and Becky Suddath and PCCLD staff members Amber Pepin, Sara Schwartz, Michelle Vigil and Courtney Woodka. There were a total of 1754 entries.

The library wishes to thank everyone who entered the contest and the teachers and parents who encouraged them to participate. We look forward to your entries again next year!

Snuffalump
My name's snuffalump or 'snuff' just for short. I'm small but I'm mighty, and my body contorts! I live in the forest among the birds
and the trees, but when I come out from hiding I help those in need. My job is to help those less fortunate than I, so when there's an issue I'll most likely be nigh!

Mr. Rallentando

Mr. Rallentando is a musical mastermind. He lives in the hills, hidden from people because they misuse his talents. He is very purple and loves to sing, play guitar and dance. Outside of his musical talents, he loves to eat food and talk to his many friends that are other animals as well. All of the animals that know Mr. Rallentando love him very much.
