The Pueblo City-County Library District is now accepting nominations for the 2014 Outstanding Women Awards. For more than 30 years, these awards have honored women who have made important contributions to our community and have celebrated the important role that women have played in Pueblo's history. These awards provide an opportunity for any individual or organization to honor a special woman who has made an impact. The only criteria is that the woman must be a resident of Pueblo County currently or during the time the award honors. The person does not have to be living to be honored.

Nomination forms are available at Pueblo public libraries and online at pueblolibrary.org/contests. Nominations must be received no later than 5 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 14. For more information, please call 553-0220 or email susan.wolf@pueblolibrary.org.

Auxiliary aides and interpreter services are available, with a one-week notice, to individuals with disabilities by calling 553-0227.

Since 1989, the accomplishments of 491 women have been preserved for future generations.

Pueblo City-County Library District Outstanding Women Award Guidelines

1. The woman must be a resident of Pueblo County either now or during the time the award honors.
2. Nominations must be sponsored by a Pueblo organization, club, association, individual, etc.
3. The nominating organization is responsible for preparing a brief biographical sketch of 150-250 words describing the woman's accomplishments. The nomination form and bio will be added to the Robert Hoag Rawlings Library's Western Research Room, and a brief summary will be included in the program that will be distributed at the luncheon. Please complete as much information on the nomination form as possible. Please include a photograph. Past recipients will not receive a second award.
4. A representative of the nominating organization will present the award at a special luncheon on Friday, March 14 at noon. The award ceremony will be brief so that women who work may attend.
5. The nominating organization will pay $56.11 for the award ($40.00) and the honoree's lunch ($16.11). Reservations for additional attendees are required. Checks must be made payable to the Pueblo City-County Library District (PCCLD).
