

bridging BORDERS

empowering the FUTURE
by understanding the past

BRIDGING BORDERS is a 8-week fellowship designed specifically for teenage girls in Pueblo County. This project enables participating teens to reconnect with the stories, knowledge and practices of women who helped to build our community. With hands-on workshops taught by regional scholars, the fellowship nurtures a sense of place and a sense of history that form the roots of strong self-identity.

BRIDGING BORDERS is a special fellowship offered by El Pueblo History Museum, Pueblo City-County Library District, Colorado State University-Pueblo, and Department of Social Services.

fall 2017 session:

Eight weeks: October 6 through December 1

Fridays | 2:00-5:00 pm

Sessions are hosted at Rawlings Public Library & El Pueblo History Museum

Apply today! Applications due September 29, 2017

Bridging Borders is FREE for participants.

Email for application or more information:

dawn.diprince@state.co.us

Tamara.Trujillo@pueblocounty.us

Bridging Borders: Empowering the Future by Understanding the Past

Bridging Borders is an 8-week project designed specifically for teenage girls in Pueblo County. This project will enable participating teens to reconnect with the stories, knowledge and practices of women who helped to build our community. With hands-on workshops taught by regional scholars, the project will nurture a sense of place and a sense of history that form the roots of strong self-identity. Bridging Borders is a special fellowship offered by El Pueblo History Museum, Pueblo City-County Library District, Colorado State University-Pueblo, and Department of Social Services. The project was launched with a grant from the American Association of University Women. Up to 25 teenage girls will be selected for the project. To apply, please fill out the short application below:

Participant Info:

Name _____ Date of Birth _____

Address _____

City/State/Zip _____

Phone #/ Email Address _____

School + Grade _____

Parent Info:

Name _____

Address _____

City/State/Zip _____

Phone #/ Email Address _____

Question:

What do you like and/or dislike about living in Pueblo or Pueblo County? Please explain using the lines below.

Application due: September 29, 2017, by 4 pm. Return this application via mail or in person to El Pueblo History Museum, 301 North Union Avenue, Pueblo, Colorado 81003
You can also email applications or questions to Dawn DiPrince at dawn.diprince@state.co.us or Tamara Trujillo at tamara.trujillo@pueblocounty.us