No appointments are needed for vaccine clinics in Pueblo.

Colorado health officials are encouraging eligible Coloradans to get their vaccine this week with several mobile and pop-up clinics that are taking place, many of them are planned in Pueblo.

From 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. on Tuesday you can go to Solar Roast Coffee and from 1:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. a clinic will be at the Lucero Library.

On Thursday there is a clinic planned for the Blackman Library from 1:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Remember the vaccines are free, insurance and an ID card are not required, neither is an appointment.
