2017 Outstanding Women Awards

The 2017 Outstanding Women Awards Luncheon and Recognition took place on March 10 at the Rawlings Library. 32 women were recognized at that time in an event hosted by PCCLD with approximately 250 in attendance. This is an annual event that has taken place for more than thirty years, which is emceed by Midori Clark (Director of Community Relations, Development & Strategic Initiatives).

Friends of the Library Grants

The Friends of the Library announced funding support for the following PCCLD grant requests:

- Adult Programming Series for Lamb Library $1,300
- May the 4th Be With You for Rawlings Library Youth Services $600
- Treat Your Mom to Tea program for Giodone Library $300
- IDEACon for Rawlings Library Youth Services $700
- Program materials for Barkman Library $400
- STEM Programming for Giodone Library $2,450
- Adult Literacy Program at Rawlings Library $2,500
- World War I Commemoration for Rawlings Library Special Collections $700
- Art Show Awards for Rawlings Library Special Collections $300
- Contest Awards Ceremony Refreshments for Community Relations $800

- STEAM Program Kits for Lucero $2,088
- Medieval Faire at Pueblo West $500
- Science Kit at Greenhorn Valley $720
- Assistive Technologies Revitalization Project $1,342

The total amount of this gift to PCCLD from the Friends of the Library is $17,000. These funds are especially important to help ameliorate programming funding support shortfalls in PCCLD's 2017 budget.

WiFi Hotspots

Jill Deulen (Technical Services & Collection Development Director) and Amy Martin (Reference & Readers Advisory Manager) are working to implement a pilot PCCLD WiFi Hotspot checkout program to commence in May at Barkman and Rawlings Libraries. PCCLD will offer WiFi Hotspots available for check out. Hotspots provide wireless service to patrons who might otherwise not have it. With a hotspot, you can connect to the Internet anywhere within cellular data service coverage.

Career Online High School

Jill Deulen (Technical Service & Collection Development Director) is overseeing the PCCLD implementation of career online high school program courtesy of a $32,000 grant. The program will launch in August. Career Online High School is accredited by the national commission that confers the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Council on Accreditation and School Improvement (SACS CASI), North Central Association Commission on Accreditation and School Improvement (NCA CASI), and the Northwest Accreditation Commission (NWAC) accreditation seals. PCCLD plans to offer 30 scholarship seats for individuals without a high school diploma who otherwise do not qualify for no-cost education in Colorado. PCCLD is one of several public libraries in Colorado selected to participate in this program, which is being supported by the Colorado State Library and the Colorado Department of Education.

THANK YOU MESSAGES

- The Colorado Department of Corrections sent the following letter to Jon Walker: "On behalf of Arkansas Valley Correctional Facility we want to express our great appreciation for the excellent presentation provided by your employees, Kayci Barnett (Giodone Library Manager), Alayna Parker (Giodone Customer Service Representative) and Maria Kramer (Youth Services Manager) to our re-entry offenders on March 14. I really commend your staff for their enthusiasm in providing our re-entry offenders the information needed when they are released from a correctional facility to ease their transition back into society. It was a pleasure arranging this visit to partner with PCCLD knowing their background in expert service while encouraging the joy of reading, supporting lifelong learning and presenting access to information.”

- Staff and students of Carlile Elementary sent the following thank you note to Jane Carlsen (Executive Assistant) after participating in a Read Across America storytime event in recognition of Dr. Seuss’ birthday: “I would Thank You, here or there, I would Thank You anywhere. I would Thank You in a wagon. I would Thank You with a dragon. In the park, or at the zoo, because that was awfully nice of you. You’re very special and oh so sweet, sharing our day was such a treat.”
- Kari Amelia Conger wrote the following in the online suggestion box: “I have been coming to the library for a few years. I bring my grandchildren and they love it. I didn’t start using the catalog computer until recently when I started putting books and movies on hold. It has been such a help. I’ve been able to watch a larger variety of movies and am able to find things I enjoyed as a child to bring to my grandchildren. It’s been great.”
- The library received a card from Mildean Jubert York from Rosenberg, Texas, with a note addressed to Charlene Simms (Special Collections Librarian) and Tammi Moe (Librarian Archivist) which read: “Thank you so much for the pictures you sent me from your Special Collections on Lincoln Home. I and my brothers were children in the home. We did not have any childhood pictures so being able to have a glimpse of what we looked like is so special.”
- The library received an online comment from Cokes Esparza who wrote: “I want to say thank you to the staff at the Lucero Library for being there during my illness and helping get recipes and movies.”
- The Lucero Library received a thank you note from Priscilla Weiler which read: “A note to thank you for your great hospitality in the use of a room to host our Memorial Service on Saturday, March 18, 2017. It was just right for us. We are so grateful. Thank you.”

Respectfully submitted,
Jon Walker
