Library board appointments announced

PUEBLO, Colo. – The Pueblo County Board of Commissioners recently appointed Fredrick Quintana and James Stuart to the Pueblo City-County Library District Board of Trustees.

Quintana previously served on the library board from March 2005 to August 2008. Since serving, Quintana earned his juris doctorate from Florida Coastal School of Law in Jacksonville, Fla. Upon successfully completing the Colorado Bar Exam, Quintana plans to begin his law career in Pueblo. Quintana additionally holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Colorado State University in Ft. Collins, Colo.

Stuart has served on the PCCLD Board of Trustees since 2007, and was president in 2010 and 2011. Stuart is the past president of the Friends of the Library Board and currently holds the position of interim manager and accountant for Books Again used bookstore. Stuart has also served on the Pueblo Medal of Honor Foundation Board, the Pueblo City/County Community Services Advisory Commission and the Roselawn Cemetery Board. Stuart is the retired CEO of Sangray Corporation.
