Baca and Bregar elected as president and vice president of library board of trustees

PUEBLO, Colo. – Pueblo City-County Library District is pleased to announce that the library board of trustees has elected Sherri Baca as president and Marlene Bregar as vice president of the library board of trustees.

Baca and Bregar were elected to these positions at the library board of trustees meeting on Jan. 26 2011 at the Rawlings Library. Previously, Jim Stuart was president and Baca was vice president, each had held the role since January 2010.

Baca has served on the library board of trustees since January 2008. She is currently the president and CEO of the El Pueblo adolescent treatment community.

Bregar has served on the library board of trustees since December 2005. She is a retired teacher and administrator of School District 70. Currently, Bregar is an adjunct professor at Pueblo Community College.
