October's independent film at the InfoZone

Pueblo, Colo. – Seven Minutes in Heaven is the independent film playing at the InfoZone Theater in the Rawlings Library in October. Galia, a young woman from Jerusalem, and her boyfriend Oren board a local bus. The bus explodes, leaving Oren in a coma and Galia with severe burns and memory loss; she lacks memory of the day of the terrorist attack and the days leading up to it. The film begins one year after the attack, upon Oren's death.

As Galia undergoes therapy, she attempts to stitch together the shattered fragments of her life and soul. A necklace sent to her from an unidentified source sends her on a journey to solve the mystery of that fateful day. Seven Minutes in Heaven will be shown at 7 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 27. Doors to the library open for movie attendees at 6:30 p.m., and the movie begins at 7 p.m. Seven Minutes in Heaven is filmed in Hebrew with English subtitles.

Independent films shown in the InfoZone are award-winning movies, honored at many notable festivals held each year around the world. The movies are works by up-and-coming directors from countries such as Canada, Brazil, India Denmark and Italy. The movies are not rated, and recommended for viewers ages 17 and older. Held on the third Saturday evening of each month, Independent Film Night is free to attend, and seating is on a first-come, first-served basis.

The InfoZone News Museum is a division of the Pueblo City-County Library District. All events are free and open to the public. The museum's mission is to provide broader knowledge of news and information. The museum focuses on journalism, the First Amendment, historic news and current events. For more information about the InfoZone News Museum and its events, please call (719) 562-5604.
