April's independent film at the InfoZone

Pueblo, Colo. — Hospitalite is the film playing at the InfoZone Theater in the Rawlings Library, 100 E. Abriendo Ave., in April. Mikio Kobayashi lives quietly with his wife, daughter, and divorced sister in downtown Tokyo, where xenophobic neighbors insist on them participating in community meetings, and the most exciting thing to happen is the disappearance of a pet parrot. But one day Kagawa appears, claiming to be the son of a financier who once helped Kobayashi's company. In return for his family's past help, Kagawa requests to move in, and Kobayashi's quiet life is quickly forgotten when Kagawa invites his Brazilian (or is she Bosnian?) wife and myriad eclectic and foreign visitors to join him in the cramped apartment. The Kobayashis are comically tossed about in confusion as Kagawa and his associates run amuck in their home. Kagawa, with the help of his visitors, manages to stir up the monotony of Mikio's former life with affairs, blackmail and rampant partying.

Hospitalite will be shown at 7 p.m. on Saturday, April 20 in Japanes with English subtitles. Doors to the library open for movie attendees at 6:30 p.m. and the movie begins at 7 p.m. Independent films are not rated and may not be suitable for all ages.
