Summer Reading programs added at the library

PUEBLO, Colo. – The Pueblo City-County Library District is excited to add two additional performers to the Summer Reading line-up due to record setting event participation from the community. Performances are free and open to the public. They are:

- Bruce Black’s Fizz Boom Read!
Wednesday, July 30
10 a.m. at Pueblo West Library
2 p.m. at Rawlings Library
Award-winning magician Bruce Black returns with fun and educational magic that encourages summer reading and teaches magic tricks by looking at the scientific principles behind a few famous illusions.
- Alien Alert!
Thursday, July 31
11 a.m. at Lamb Library
2 p.m. at Barkman
Enjoy tales about the stars, sky and constellations with Denise Gard and her super smart Border Collie, Sienna.

For more information about these events, please call Janina Goodwin at 562-5618.
