August movies at the InfoZone

Pueblo, Colo. — Pueblo City-County Library District is offering a wide selection of movies at the InfoZone News Museum theater during the month of August. Along with the monthly independent film, weekly Wednesday films and weekend kids' movies, this month also features a documentary. Descriptions of the documentary and independent film are listed below.

Hanna Ranch will play at the InfoZone Theater in the Rawlings Library, 100 E. Abriendo Ave. on Thursday, Aug. 14 at 7 p.m. Hanna Ranch is a documentary about visionary cattleman, Kirk Hanna, and his personal struggle to protect a once prominent way of life in Colorado. Born into a life on the family ranch, Hanna became a leader in the environmental ranching movement that set out to protect the West from the relentless encroachment of development and misuse.

A Birder's Guide to Everything (English subtitles), is the independent film playing at the InfoZone Theater in the Rawlings Library, 100 E. Abriendo Ave. on Saturday, Aug. 16 at 7 p.m. Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

David Portnoy, a 15-year-old birding fanatic, thinks that he's made the discovery of a lifetime. So, on the eve of his father's remarriage, he escapes on an epic road trip with his best friends to solidify their place in birding history.

Independent films shown in the InfoZone are award-winning movies, honored at many notable festivals held each year around the world. The movies are works by up-and-coming directors from countries such as Canada, Brazil, India, Denmark, and Italy. The movies are not rated, and recommended for viewers ages 17 and older. Held on the third Saturday evening of each month, Independent Film Night is free to attend, and seating is on a first-come, first-serve basis.

The InfoZone News Museum is a division of the Pueblo City-County Library District. All events are free and open to the public. The museum's mission is to provide broader knowledge of news and information. The museum focuses on journalism, the First Amendment, historic news and current events. For more information about the InfoZone News Museum and its events, please call (719) 562-5604.
