Maria E. Sanchez-Tucker receives Mosaic scholarship

PUEBLO, Colo.— Maria E. Sanchez-Tucker, manager of special collections, Western history and the InfoZone News Museum for the Pueblo City-County Library District, was awarded the 2014 Mosaic Scholarship by the Society of American Archivists. The scholarship will be used in the pursuit of a master's in library and information science at the University of Wisconsin–Milwaukee.

Prior to attending UWM, Sanchez-Tucker earned a bachelor of arts degree in anthropology from the University of New Mexico and a master of arts degree in museum science from Texas Tech University. She joined the staff at PCCLD in 2008 and has worked to digitize the library's historical records and photographs so the public has better access to Pueblo's past. Prior to joining PCCLD, Sanchez-Tucker was the executive director of the Bessemer Historical Society.
