Saddle up with Pueblo City-County Library District!

Pueblo, Colo. — Kick up your spurs, giddy up or mosey on over to Pueblo City-County Library District in August for cowboy fun! Rawlings Library, 100 E. Abriendo Ave., will feature a month-long cowboy exhibit, weekly cowboy movies and Home on the Range, a series of programs about the Wild West in collaboration with Pueblo County Historical Society and Santa Fe Trail Association.

Exhibit: Aug. 1-31, 3rd floor

A selection of branding irons, a variety of barbed wire, saddle bags, army spurs, oxen collars, holsters and more will be on display.

Movies: Tuesdays, 6:30 p.m., InfoZone-4th floor

Aug. 11: Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid (1969) (NR)

Aug. 18: Tombstone (1993) (R)

Aug. 25: Pale Rider (R)

Home on the Range Programs: Saturday, Aug. 15, InfoZone-4th floor

- 9:30 a.m. El Vaquero

Angel Vigil, renowned storyteller and author, tells stories and legends of the Spanish/Mexican Vaquero, America's first cowboy.

- 10:45 a.m. The true story of the Wild West

Bob Silva, author of the western biography, Lead in Trinidad, presents on the real Wild West. These scenes capture the essence of open range land, homesteading, cattle trailing and the Native Americans that made up the western landscape of the Americas in the 1800s.
