2016 Outstanding Women Awards

PUEBLO, Colo.– Is there a woman who has made a significant impact in the Pueblo community? Honor them at a luncheon hosted by the Pueblo City-County Library District! The 2016 Outstanding Women Awards will take place at noon on Friday, March 11 at Rawlings Library, 100 E. Abriendo Ave.

Nominations are due by Friday, Feb. 12. Cost is $60 which covers the cost of the award and lunch for the nominee. Guests may attend the lunch for $20. Forms are available at all PCCLD locations and online at pueblolibrary.org/contests. All nominees receive the award.

These awards have honored women who have made important contributions to our community and have celebrated the important role that women have played in Pueblo's history and provide an opportunity for any individual or organization to honor them. The woman must be a resident of Pueblo County currently or during the time the award honors. They do not have to be living to be honored. Any individual or organization may nominate a woman of their choice.

Those nominated will receive a specially designed award by artist Kate Fox and a complimentary ticket valued at $30 to a special event at Rawlings Library on March 25 featuring New York Times bestselling author Karen Abbott as well as a copy of Abbott's book Liar, Temptress, Soldier, Spy.

For more information, contact Sara Schwartz at 553-0220 or email sara.schwartz@pueblolibrary.org.
