Award-winning Colombian movie

PUEBLO – Karen Cries on the Bus, the InfoZone News Museum’s independent film choice for June, is a drama from Colombia that follows a woman’s first steps toward independence after leaving her husband.

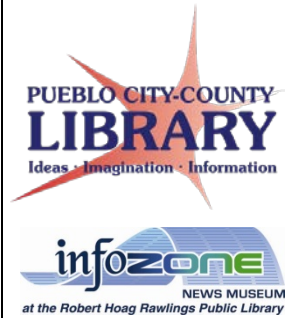

Karen needs a fresh start after leaving her husband to find out who she is and who she could be. Despite her husband’s proclamation that she can do absolutely nothing, she walks out into Bogota with no friends and hardly any money but catches a break when she meets a hairdresser named Patricia at a cheap flophouse. With this new-found friend by her side, Karen takes her first steps towards independence and self-discovery.

Karen Cries on the Bus will be shown at 7 p.m. on Saturday, June 16. Doors to the library open for movie attendees at 6:30 p.m., and the movie begins at 7 p.m. Karen Cries on the Bus is filmed in Spanish with English subtitles.

Independent films shown in the InfoZone are award-winning movies, honored at many notable festivals held each year around the world. The movies are works by up-and-coming directors from countries such as Canada, Brazil, India Denmark and Italy. The movies are not rated, and recommended for viewers ages 17 and older. Held on the third Saturday evening of each month, Independent Film Night is free to attend, and seating is on a first-come, first-served basis.

The InfoZone News Museum is a division of the Pueblo City-County Library District. All events are free and open to the public. The museum's mission is to provide broader knowledge of news and information. The museum focuses on journalism, the First Amendment, historic news and current events. For more information about the InfoZone News Museum and its events, please call (719) 562-5604.
