September's independent film at the InfoZone

Pueblo, Colo. – The Piano in a Factory if the independent film playing at the InfoZone in September. When Chen's estranged wife reappears asking for a divorce and custody of their daughter, the musical girl decides she will live with whoever can provide her with a piano, beginning Chen's struggle. When efforts to borrow money and even steal a piano fail, Chen concocts a preposterous plan - he'll make a piano from scratch! He persuades a bunch of reluctant, but loyal, misfit friends to help him forge the instrument in a derelict factory from a heap of scrap steel. Though crude in design and tune, the factory piano awaits its first and final performance from his little girl.

The Piano in a Factory will be shown at 7 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 15. Doors to the library open for movie attendees at 6:30 p.m., and the movie begins at 7 p.m.

The Piano in a Factory is filmed in Mandarin Chinese with English subtitles.

Independent films shown in the InfoZone are award-winning movies, honored at many notable festivals held each year around the world. The movies are works by up-and-coming directors from countries such as Canada, Brazil, India Denmark and Italy. The movies are not rated, and recommended for viewers ages 17 and older. Held on the third Saturday evening of each month, Independent Film Night is free to attend, and seating is on a first-come, first-served basis.

The InfoZone News Museum is a division of the Pueblo City-County Library District. All events are free and open to the public. The museum's mission is to provide broader knowledge of news and information. The museum focuses on journalism, the First Amendment, historic news and current events. For more information about the InfoZone News Museum and its events, please call (719) 562-5604.
