Celebrate Native American Heritage Month

Kevin Locke: Hoop of Life

Thursday, Nov. 15, 7 p.m., RA, Ryals Room-4th floor

Kevin is a worldwide musical and dance hero. Through his performances, he engages all ages as active participants in the Hoop Dance. This allows his audience to immerse themselves in the art of storytelling through dance and music, a deep rooted tradition in his culture. Tokeya Inajin is his Lakota name, meaning "The First to Arise" and is known throughout the world as a visionary Hoop Dancer, the preminent player of the indigenous Northern Plains flute, a traditional storyteller, cultural ambassador, recording artist and educator.

2018 Library of the Year

Jon Walker

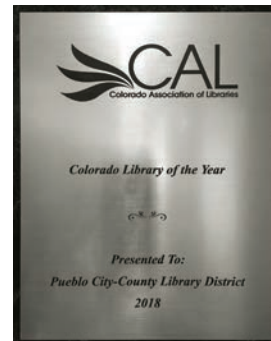

by Jon Walker

Pueblo City-County Library District (PCCLD) was named as the 2018 Library of the Year. The Colorado Association of Libraries (CAL) presented this award to PCCLD at its annual conference on September 14 in Loveland.

This CAL honor is bestowed annually on a Colorado library for exceptional accomplishments achieved during the year. This special recognition comes on the heels of PCCLD's other notable acknowledgments in recent months. PCCLD was selected as a Four Star Library in December 2017, elected as America's Best Public Library in a national "people's choice" competition in March 2018, and awarded the National Medal for Museum and Library Service at a special ceremony in Washington, D.C., in May.

All these recent PCCLD accolades are testimony to a dedicated team of library employees working tirelessly to provide the best possible library service for our community.

Show us your support on Colorado Gives Day

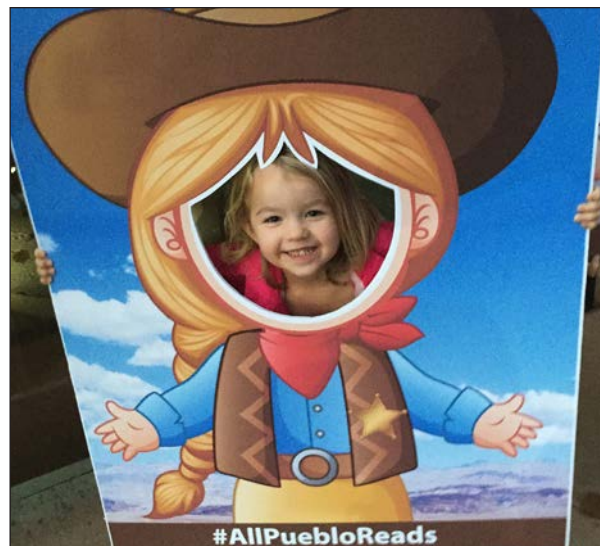

Please give where you live and support us on Colorado Gives Day, Tuesday, Dec. 4. This 24-hour movement is a chance to increase the value of your donation, thanks to the $1 Million Incentive Fund. Created by Community First Foundation and FirstBank, the fund increases the value of every dollar donated proportionally.

For example, if the library district receives 10 percent of the total donations made on Colorado Gives Day, we will receive 10 percent of the $1 Million Incentive Fund.

To donate on Colorado Gives Day, go to ColoradoGives.org. Or, beginning Thursday, Nov. 1, schedule your donation early.

Colorado Gives Day is powered by ColoradoGives.org, a year-round website featuring more than 2,300 nonprofits. The site encourages charitable giving by providing comprehensive, objective and up-to-date information about Colorado nonprofits.

Rootin' Tootin' fun

A Western-themed All Pueblo Reads Family Kickoff Concert and Fun on Friday, Oct. 5 featured live music by Atomic Fireballs and crafts for the kids.

Library's online catalog, website getting new look

The library's website and online catalog will look different beginning mid December. Homepage and menus as well as the online catalog will change. Saved content, book lists and reviews will no longer be accessible. User IDs will default to library card number and PIN. Materials checked out, hold and fines will remain on your account. For more information, please call (719) 562-5600.

NOVEMBER CLOSURES

- Sunday, Nov. 11: Veteran's Day

- Thursday, Nov. 22: Thanksgiving Day

LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE 2019

Do you know a woman in grades 10-12 who wants to make a positive impact in Pueblo, learn about leadership and build their college resume? Encourage them to apply to the 2019

Leadership Institute, a fundraiser for the Pueblo Library Foundation. This is a character-building program where participants learn about leadership, teamwork, volunteering and will be recognized publicly as the next generation of leaders and philanthropists in Pueblo.

Special screening & Discussion

Resilience (NR)

Monday, Nov. 12, 5-8 p.m., RA, InfoZone-4th floor

Researchers have recently discovered a dangerous biological syndrome caused by abuse and neglect during childhood. As the new documentary Resilience reveals, toxic stress can trigger hormones that wreak havoc on the brains and bodies of children, putting them at a greater risk for disease, homelessness, prison time and early death. Trailblazers in pediatrics, education, and social welfare are using cutting-edge science and field-tested therapies to protect children from the insidious effects of toxic stress. After the film, join Health Solutions professionals for a discussion. Refreshments provided.

Special screening

What Lies Upstream (NR)

Monday, Nov. 26, 6:30 p.m., RA, Ryals Room-4th floor

In this documentary political thriller, an investigation into a chemical spill spirals into an indictment of the entire system meant to protect drinking water, revealing cover-ups at the highest levels of government.

El Arcoiris Film

Burning Blue (R)

Thursday, Nov. 8, 6:30 p.m., RA, InfoZone-4th floor

A Navy accident inspection becomes a witch hunt after a senior officer is spotted in a gay bar. As the investigation shifts focus, the officer, his squadron mates and their families all suffer.
