Based on a true story. In the wake of the Chernobyl nuclear disaster, Malin (Rodrigo Santoro), a Russian literature professor at the University of Havana, is sent to translate for the Soviet children who have been brought to Cuba for medical treatment. While adapting to this emotionally demanding job, the Berlin Wall falls and a deep economic crisis hits the island. But Malin is so entrenched in the lives of the Chernobyl children that he fails to notice his own family suffering. Now he must find a way to put the fractured pieces of his life back together.

PBS POV Documentary

The World Before Her (NR)

Thursday, June 13, 7-9 p.m., LB

The World Before Her is a tale of two Indias. In one, Ruhi Singh is a small-town girl competing in Bombay to win the Miss India pageant — a ticket to stardom. In the other India, Prachi Trivedi is the young, militant leader of a fundamentalist Hindu camp for girls, where she preaches violent resistance to Western culture, Christianity and Islam. Moving between these divergent realities, the film creates a lively, provocative portrait of the world's largest democracy at a critical transitional moment — and of two women who hope to shape its future.

A co-presentation with the Center for Asian American Media (CAAM). This event is a collaboration with POV, PBS' award-winning nonfiction film series. <http://www.pbs.org/pov/>.
