Monthly arts and craft festival kicks off

The Creative Corridor and Pueblo City-County Library District have partnered to host a monthly art fair featuring arts, crafts, entertainment, assorted activities and fun. The event will take place on the 2nd Sunday of each month July-October at the Rawlings Library courtyard. Local vendors will be selling hand-crafted items that are family friendly and affordable.

The art bash is currently seeking artists to participate. Free spaces will be available for selected art vendors, but vendors must provide their own tables, chairs and tent/shade. Vendors will be selected by the Mesa Junction Creative Corridor Committee based on available spacing, pricing and variety of merchandise.

To submit your application, visit www.pueblolibrary.org/vendorform. For more information on this event, contact Susan Wolf at 553-0220.

Summer Reading

by Jon Walker

We are in the midst of another great summer. The Pueblo City-County Library District is sponsoring programs for all ages throughout the summer months designed to encourage and celebrate the joy of reading.

The project kicked-off in June and continues well into August.

We are pleased that the summer reading program has continued to grow in popularity in recent years. Last year a record number of people participated in the library's summer reading program. So far, it looks like another top-notch summer is unfolding in 2013. I hope you already are participating. But it is not too late to join in the fun. There are programs for adults, young adults and children.

Of course, reading is fundamentally important for all ages. But for younger people studies show that it is very likely vital to the quality of their later life. Simply stated, the better you read, the more apt you are to succeed. This summer's library program is designed especially to present programming, events and activities to promote and encourage reading among our youth. Our goal is simple. We aim to keep kids reading all summer long. We don't focus on assigned reading nor reading as work. Instead, we emphasize reading for fun. Read comics. Read Manga. Read graphic novels. Read fun magazines. Read whatever is entertaining. Just read.

Why is it important for young people to read for fun during the summer? The short answer is the simple act of exercising reading skills during the summer helps keep them sharper for the next academic school year. The more you read, the better you read.

This helps reduce what educators commonly refer to as "summer setback." This is the phenomenon whereby during the summer break away from school, young people tend

Wii-U video games now available for check out

Wii-U video games are now available to check out at all library branches. Patrons can check out 2 video games for a 1-week period. Video games for PS3, XBOX 360 and Wii are also available.

Summer Reading at Pueblo City-County Library District is a great way for kids to spend the summer. Pictured here is this summer's first Summer Reading Game Board prize winner. What prize did he win? The answer lies somewhere below his nose.

to lose the learning momentum from the prior school year and can forget significant pieces of what was learned. Scholarly research supports this notion, and, also, that this decline can be more pronounced with reading skills. Evidence shows that those who are better readers are those who read more, and when reading slows or stops during the summer, then skills atrophy. In order to help prevent this setback, the library district's summer program features events and activities designed to promote and encourage reading among our youth.

I hope that you and the young people in your life are reading this summer. The library's summer reading program can help, and it's free, it's fun and it's important.

Percussionist Dan Egger-Balandria took children at the Rawlings Library on a musical journey spanning the history of rhythm. From its roots in Africa to Central America, Egger-Balandria's World Rhythm Synergy show brought energetic beats to Pueblo's doorstep — at the local library!

Dig into reading by biting into some homemade ice cream! Dessert making was a big hit in the hot Summer Reading month of June. Dozens of children participated in the Dig Into Ice cream program held in the Ryals Room at the Rawlings Library.

Something wacky this way comes! The Wild Rumpus Circus rolled into the Rawlings Library in June to celebrate Summer Reading. World-famous clown and juggler Alfredo Tortellini entertained a crowd of youngsters that just about laughed the roof off of the 4th floor Ryals Room.

She's got legs, and she knows how to use them! Stilt-walker Marcia Miquelon of the Wild Rumpus Circus performs for an enthusiastic crowd of kids at the Rawlings Library during the first month of Summer Reading.

The library can be a strange and mysterious place. Like a gaggle of Fraggles, children brought their beloved stuffed animals to the Rawlings Library to spend the night. Who knows what hi-jinks they were up to while sleeping over? The tribe pictured here seemingly had a blast riding circulation's conveyor belt like a roller coaster until the break of dawn.

Adult Summer Reading programs!

Book discussion group

Monday, July 1 at 7 p.m.
Barkman Library

Her name was Henrietta Lacks, but scientists know her as HeLa. She was a poor black tobacco farmer whose cells — taken without her knowledge in 1951 — became one of the most important tools in medicine, vital for developing the polio vaccine, cloning, gene mapping, in vitro fertilization and more. Henrietta's cells have been bought and sold by the billions, yet she remains virtually unknown, and her family can't afford health insurance.

Barkman Library will hold a group session discussing The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks, a book written by author Rebecca Skloot. For more information, call 562-5680.

Pottery class

Wednesday, July 10 from 6:30-8:30 p.m.
Pueblo West Library

The Cup and Bowl pottery studio will teach you how to build with clay. All materials will be supplied. Class size is limited and reservations are required.

The Pueblo flood

Thursday, July 11 at 7 p.m. Rawlings Library, InfoZone - 4th floor

City planner Wade Broadhead and PCCLD Manager of Special Collections and Museum Services Maria Tucker will discuss and show artifacts from the Pueblo flood of 1921.

How to meet your spirit guides

Tuesday, July 16 at 7 p.m.
Pueblo West Library - King Room A

Experience profound ways to achieve spiritual mastery in just five to 10 minutes a day. Presented by local author and transformational healer, Tianna Galgano.

Ice cream making

Thursday, July 18 at 7 p.m.
Barkman Library

Brendt Schofield, will demonstrate how to make a delicious sorbet with ingredients from your garden and without special equipment.

GROUNDBREAKING READS

For more information on these events, call Susan Wolf at 553-0220.

Book Connections: Paper making class

Monday, July 22 at 6:30 p.m.
Rawlings, InfoZone - 4th floor

One of mankind's greatest communication revolutions began with the invention of paper. Paper was first made by flattening slices of the inner part of the papyrus stem into thin sheets. Today's paper might not be made from papyrus, but the basic principles apply.

Visit the Rawlings Library for a night of homemade paper making. You will learn how to make pulp from organic and recycled materials and personalize the mixture in your own creative way. Not only is paper making fun, it is an imaginative way to recycle waste into something you can use in your home or give to a friend. For more information, call 562-5624.

Subterranean Pueblo

Thursday, July 25 at 7 p.m.
Rawlings Library
Bret Kelly A - 1st floor

Tracy Beach will present her research and photos of what lies under the city of Pueblo.

Publishing Book Fair

Saturday, July 27 from 1-4 p.m.
Rawlings Library, Ryals Room - 4th floor

Have you always dreamed of publishing your novel or other great work? Learn from local authors who have done just that! There will be seminars about publishing and readings from local authors.

The Barkman, Lamb, Library @ the Y, Pueblo West and Rawlings libraries will be closed on Thursday, July 4 for Independence Day.

Movies @ the InfoZone

Seating at the InfoZone is on a first-come, first-served basis. Snacks are not allowed in the theater, but covered drinks are permitted. The InfoZone Theater is located on the 4th floor of the Rawlings Library, 100 E. Abriendo Ave. All movies are free! Call 562-5626 for more information.

Ancient Artifacts

Friday, July 5 from 2-3 p.m.

Rawlings Library, InfoZone - 4th floor

Learn about archaeology and artifacts through a hands-on demonstration. The audience will be introduced to examples of what can be found at a dig site and explore the possibilities of archaeology field work. (This is open to all ages, no registration required.)

Mélanie Laurent stars in The Day I Saw Your Heart.

Independent movie

The Day I Saw Your Heart (NR)
Saturday, July 20 at 7 p.m.

Family life is complicated. Especially when your father, almost 60, is expecting a child with his new wife. When Eli announces the news, it shakes up his two grown daughters: Dom, who is trying to adopt, and Justine, who flits from one boyfriend to the next without much worry. Eli, who has never been able to get along with Justine, gets the good idea of trying to get closer to her by secretly becoming friends with all her ex-boyfriends. But when Justine falls in love again and Eli is about to ruin everything, the family teeters on the brink of disaster. Will they be able to work things out before it is too late?

Computer classes

All classes are held at the Rawlings Library - 3rd floor training room

Classes are limited to nine participants per session and registration is required. To register, please call 562-5601 or visit www.pueblolibrary.org and view the July 2013 events calendar.

Mouse & keyboard for beginners Monday, July 1 at noon & 4 p.m. (adults)

Mouse and Keyboard for Beginners will provide an overview of the basic tools needed to use a computer successfully and confidently. The class covers how to navigate with a mouse, right, and left clicking, in addition to the layout of the keyboard and various short-cuts. The class will include fun ways to practice and master the mouse and keyboard. This course is intended for those who are unfamiliar with computer navigation.

Prerequisite: None. This course is a very basic level session. The class is intended for people who have not used a mouse/keyboard before OR who would like to improve proficiency and enhance their computing confidence.

Keyboarding practice Tuesday, July 2 at 3 p.m. (adults)

Need to learn how to increase your typing speed. Keyboarding practice will give you the tools and resources to improve your skills. Practice sessions include an array of exercises to help you practice at your own pace and increase your typing speed.

Prerequisite: Basic Computer skills including basic knowledge of the mouse and keyboard.

Computers for beginners Monday, July 8 at noon & 4 p.m. (adults)

Computers for Beginners provides an overview of the components of the computer. The course includes how to operate a computer (turning the computer on/off, navigating the desktop, launching a program, etc.) Participants learn how to create, save, close, and reopen documents. The course also includes a brief web browser tutorial.

Prerequisite: Familiarity and proficiency with the mouse and keyboard OR having completed the Mouse and Keyboard Basics class.

Patrons can register online on pueblolibrary.org by selecting the June 2013 events calendar.

Yahoo! Set up a Yahoo! account Friday, July 12 at 2 p.m. (adults)

Need an email account? Take advantage of Yahoo!'s email by setting up a free account. Learn to compose, send, forward and manage your email.

Prerequisite: Basic Computer skills including mouse and keyboard and basic knowledge of web browsers.

Web browsing Monday, July 15 at noon & 4 p.m. (adults)

Feeling left behind on the Information Superhighway? Come learn about the Internet and the World Wide Web. Class will also provide instruction on navigating a web browser, exploring the Pueblo Library web site, finding information and printing web pages.

Prerequisite: Familiarity and proficiency with the mouse and keyboard OR having completed the Mouse and Keyboard Basics class.

Online jobs Tuesday, July 16 at 3 p.m. (adults)

Looking for a job? Let PCCLD teach you how to apply for jobs listed with the Workforce Center, how to submit your resume with an online job application and the best places to look for local jobs on the internet. Bring your laptop if you have one, or you can use a training computer.

New libraries: Community meetings for history wall project

Work is underway at Pueblo City-County Library District to create interpretive history walls that will be located in the lobbies of the soon-to-be-built St. Charles Mesa Library and East Side Library. These exhibits will feature photos and text that portray events of historical significance to their respective communities and that tell of the rich past of both neighborhoods.

The public is invited to participate in a series of meetings that will allow the library district to gather community input in the development of these exciting exhibits. Join us!
