Summer Reading Kickoff

Saturday, June 1 from 11 a.m.-4 p.m.
Rawlings Library, Youth Services - 1st floor

Sign up for Summer Reading and have BIG fun with a storytime, chalk art, bubbles and more. See big construction vehicles from H. W. Houston Construction! Then, head upstairs for ice cream and a screening of Ice Age 3: Dawn of the Dinosaurs (PG). Let the library help encourage your children to read books and win prizes all summer. Be sure to check out pages 8 and 9 for summer reading club for babies, tweens and teens.

Free Summer Reading programs for kids

Wild Rumpus Circus June 12 & 13

World-famous clown Alfredo Tortellini is the horn-juggling host for this lively, engaging performance. Combine hilarious clowning and delightful stilt-dancing with rapid-fire juggling, hula-hooping and acrobatic antics and see the Wild Rumpus (and the laughter) ensue. You never know, YOU might even end up in the show!

World Rhythm Synergy with Dan Egger-Balandria June 19 & 20

From Africa to the Caribbean; South, Central and North America, World Rhythm Synergy is a musical field trip that children can envision while learning history. Participants will have an opportunity to explore African, Afro-Cuban, and Caribbean rhythms through explosive drumming.

Summer Reading Program Schedule

Check out eBooks at the library

by Jon Walker

The Pueblo City-County Library District now provides a robust and growing collection of thousands and thousands of eBooks. These are books that you can check out and read from your eReader, smartphone, tablet or computer. The library's eBook catalog includes classics and best sellers, esoteric titles and hot titles, fiction and non-fiction, as well as choices for children and adults. Use of eBooks is free to library card holders.

Access to library eBooks is pretty simple. Go to the library's website at www.pueblolibrary.org. Roll over the "Search" button found toward the top, left corner of the screen and click on the "eBooks eAudiobooks & eMusic" link (yes, the library provides e-versions of music, audiobooks, and, even magazines, too!). Helpful hints on eBook use are provided on the resulting web page, including how to set up a variety of popular digital devices in order to facilitate use of library eBooks. Most current digital devices work with library eBooks, such as Android tablets and smartphones, Nooks and Kindles, iPads, iPhones and other Apple devices, and more.

I loaded my first library eBook onto my Android smartphone quite a number of months ago. Since then, I have regularly enjoyed reading digital books from my cell phone. Believe me, this is something that was somewhat unexpected. As recently as only a couple of years ago, I did not really envision a time when reading books on my cell phone would be an activity that I would enjoy. But I do! It works, and it works surprisingly well.

Using library eBooks is also convenient. I can search for what I want, check it out online, and download it to my phone on the spot. It means that books from the library are available to me 24 hours each day, seven days per week, whenever and wherever I want access. All I need is WiFi or cell access. And, because I already carry my cell phone with me everywhere I go, once I have checked out an eBook from the library, I nearly always have my current favorite reading material handy.

I encourage you to check out a library eBook. I think you will like it, too.

Now hear this! All Hachette audiobooks available at library

Now you can listen to your favorite books! All Hachette eBook and eAudiobook titles are available in the OverDrive Additional Titles catalog at Pueblo City-Library District. Hachette holds many popular authors not formerly available at the library such as: James Patterson, David Sedaris, Lemony Snicket, David Foster Wallace, Michael Connelly, Anita Shreve and more.

Multitask with J.K. Rowling while walking your dog or working in the yard. For more information, contact 562-5629.

Need homework help? Get HelpNow

Get unlimited online study help from HelpNow at Pueblo City-County Library District. HelpNow provides assistance with tutoring in elementary, middle school, high school, intro college and adult education. Live online tutors will be available daily from 2-11 p.m. while you're at the library or at home. HelpNow includes a writing lab, SAT/ACT/GED test prep, virtual group workrooms and live help with English, social studies, science and math! Call 562-5642 for more information.

Need job help? Get JobNow

JobNow is a unique service that features expert resume assistance, live interview preparation and career coaching at Pueblo City-County Library District. JobNow also offers an Adult Learning Center which includes GED and citizenship test preparation, an expert writing lab, study tools and a unique academic skills center featuring live, online tutors available from 2-11 p.m. daily.

Please visit the PCCLD website in June to find these great new services at www.pueblolibrary.org. Call 562-5642 for more information.

Stormtroopers are no match for Iron Man and his daughter. Is this the preview for Iron Man 4? No, it's Free Comic Book Day II held May 4 at the Rawlings Library. May the fourth be with you!

Suiting up in armor is not a sci-fi nor modern concept. Storyteller Angel Vigil displays the battle gear of a 1500s Spanish soldier during a May 11 event at the Rawlings Library which highlighted the lives of conquistadors.

Library patrons get moving in May by participating in a free yoga class held in the Ryals Room located on the 4th floor of the Rawlings Library.

Children crafted bowls out of sand at the Beach Bowl Extravaganza event held at the Lamb Library on May 21.

Drum roll please... a finished beach bowl product!

LEFT: This year's selection for One Book 4 Colorado was Duck on a Bike by David Shannon. A free copy of the book was available at all PCCLD libraries for 4-year-olds in efforts to promote literacy. What do you know? These children at the Rawlings Library seem to enjoy it!

Hatching the Past: Dinosaur Eggs and Babies traveling exhibit

June 1- August 13

Dinosaur Eggs and Babies opening celebration Saturday, June 1 from 1-2 p.m.

Followed by a 2 p.m. showing of Ice Age 3: Dawn of the Dinosaurs (PG)

Take a rare and exciting look at the life of dinosaurs through their eggs, nests and embryos in the InfoZone's new traveling exhibit Hatching the Past: Dinosaur Eggs and Babies! Hatching the Past was developed by The Stone Company of Boulder, Colorado in association with the Harvard Museum of Natural History.

For more information, call 562-5604 or visit pueblolibrary.org.

Hatching the Past after hours (all ages) Friday, June 7 from 5-8 p.m.

Rawlings Library, InfoZone News Museum - 4th floor

Visit the InfoZone News Museum and Hatching the Past after hours during the First Friday Artwalk.

University of Colorado science discovery team Rawlings Library, InfoZone Theater - 4th floor

Saturday, June 22 11 a.m.-noon (3-5 years old) & noon-1 p.m. (all ages)

Join the University of Colorado science discovery team for an engaging hands-on program about dinosaurs. What can you tell about a dinosaur's behavior by examining fossils of its teeth? Just how many teeth did a T-Rex have? How did Stegosaurus protect itself from Allosaurus? Why did Diplodocus swallow stones? Through hands-on experience with fossils and casts, students will discover the adaptations and behaviors of some of Earth's famous past residents, the dinosaurs. Students will examine fossils and explore the lives of dinosaurs; how they hunted, ate and defended themselves. Aside from the dinosaur specimens, a sampling of additional fossils will show evidence of some of the other ancient life forms that once existed on earth. This event is free and open to the public but space is limited. Please register by calling 562-5626 or at www.pueblolibrary.org

Registration required.

Love Free or Die (NR) Saturday, June 15 at noon

Faith, love, marriage, homosexuality and the Episcopal Church collide in this documentary examining the life and influence of Gene Robinson, Bishop of the Episcopal Church in New Hampshire, who became an unwitting poster boy for openly gay clergy, helping to advance the rights of the LGBT faithful.

Independent movie

Found Memories (NR) Saturday, June 15 at 7 p.m.

Like every morning, Madalena makes bread for Antonio's old coffee shop. Like every day, she crosses the railways where no trains have passed for years; she cleans up the gate of the locked cemetery, and listens to the priest's sermon before sharing lunch with the other old villagers. Clinging to the image of her dead husband and living in her memories, Madalena is awakened by the arrival of Rita, a young photographer who is arriving in the ghost village of Jotuomba, where time seems to have stopped. A deep relationship is forged between the two women, which gradually builds to have a profound effect on both of their lives, as well as the rest of the villagers.

Anne Perry

Book discussion group

Monday, June 3 at 7 p.m.
Barkman Library

In the past four decades, Anne Perry has published 40 books and established herself as a leading crime novelist, selling more than $10 million copies. Her new novel, No Graves As Yet, is the first of a five-part series centered on the first world war. When it appeared in the US, it topped the New York Times best seller list.

Barkman Library will hold a group session discussing any works by Perry, a prolific writer with an ominous past. For more information, call 562-5680.

Book Connections: The coming out process

Monday, June 24 at 6:30 p.m.
Rawlings Library
Infozone Theater - 4th floor

In celebration of Gay Pride month, Pueblo City-County Library District will host a book discussion panel highlighting coming-of-age stories, growing up different and learning how to love yourself regardless of sexual orientation. On the panel will be board members from the Southern Colorado Equality Alliance, as well as prominent mental health counselor Venice Gallegos. For questions, contact Brian Palomar at 562-5601. Read the books and come and talk about it.

If You Knew Then What I Know Now by Ryan Van Meter

This is a collection of essays on growing up, becoming an adult and learning to live life including all of its twists and turns along the way.

Why Be Happy When You can Be Normal by Jeanette Winterson

Growing up in Manchester, and learning to love her crazy religious mother, the author discusses the early years of her sometimes surreal life.

Friends of the Library president's corner

by Mary Simmons Couch

The Friends of the Library rely heavily on all our dedicated volunteers. This month, I respectfully recognize two key volunteers, Wanda Toepper and Jay Johnson. Wanda and Jay make up our dedicated and faithful Saturday crew at Books Again bookstore.

Week in and week out, year in and year out, you will find Wanda and Jay staffing Books Again on any given Saturday. Saturday is our biggest day for sales volume.

Wanda started at Books Again in July 2005, our inaugural month. Wanda credits her longevity at Books Again to her sense of satisfaction from working with customers; she serves as an unofficial readers' advisor to Saturday customers who come in searching for an engrossing novel. Wanda is also a member of the Books Again store management committee.

Jay started at Books Again five years ago. He serves as the expert in many bookstore sections: audio-visual, gardening, do-it-yourself and media, to name a few. Jay reports that Books Again is important to him for the opportunity it provides for interaction with customers and volunteers.

Hats off to our volunteers, Wanda and Jay!

Membership chairman, Carol King, reports that as of May 1, 2013, membership in the Friends of the Library totaled 784. The Friends board has set a goal of 1,000 members by May 1, 2014. Please consider joining Friends if you are not already a member. Memberships are designed to fit any pocketbook. Members are entitled to a discount every day at Books Again, as well as invitations to our members-only special sales. Please see the membership application form on the last page of this newsletter.

Next on the agenda for the Friends of the Library is the Summer Reading Program at PCCLD. Again this year, we will serve as the major sponsor! There is another reason for you to join the Friends of the Library today; most likely, the Summer Reading Program has successfully touched the life of a young reader in your family!

New libraries: Community meetings for history wall project

Greenhorn Valley meeting
Wednesdays, June 12, 19 & 26
6-8 p.m. at Colorado City Metropolitan District
4497 Bent Brothers Blvd., Colorado City

St. Charles Mesa meetings
Wednesdays, July 10, 17 & 24
6-8 p.m. at Roselawn Funeral Home
1706 Roselawn Rd.

East Side meetings
Tuesdays, August 6, 13 & 20
6-8 p.m. at El Centro del Quinto Sol
