PRINTED THANKS TO THE GENEROUS SUPPORT OF FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

Rawlings' second-floor facelift

By Carol Rooney

You may have noticed that something is happening on the second floor of the Rawlings Library.

Some sections have already moved, and this is only the beginning of changes that will be seen in the reference and readers advisory area at the Rawlings Library.

The Library Enhancement Project on the first floor of the Rawlings Library, and at the Barkman, Lamb and Pueblo West libraries in 2013, is moving to the second level of Rawlings Library in 2014. Computers, DVDs, books and other materials will remain, but will be repackaged into areas encouraging imagination, ideas, information and independence.

The now empty shelves in the "sky wing" will promote imagination through adult large print and fiction collections. Books will be available for passionate readers, and additional space will be available for customers to sit and use their own devices, or those checked out from the library's Center for Information Technology.

Ideas will continue to originate in the non-fiction area. The direction of the shelves will be changed, but cookbooks, auto repair manuals, self-help books, yoga instruction, biographies, etc., will be in a newly carpeted, attractively arranged area for browsing.

And information will abound in the spacious technology/media center. Computers, iPads, DVDs, CDs other media, and the new Teen Central will be found in this area. An added attraction will be a glassed-in makerspace, a gathering workspace used for creation, collaboration, innovation and entrepreneurship.

In order to complete these renovations, the second floor of Rawlings Library will be closed and unavailable in February. Never fear, computers and materials will be temporarily moved to meeting rooms on the first floor and staff will pull requested materials to place on hold shelves during the month of renovation.

Watch for the announcement for the grand opening of the exciting, new area of the library that encourages imagination, ideas, information and independence!

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

by Jon Walker

2013 was a grand year at the Pueblo City-County Library District. Record numbers of people visited libraries. Attendance at library programs and events was at the highest level in the history of the library district. Use of library digital resources continued to increase. A huge quantity of books and other library materials was checked out. The strong use of libraries in Pueblo County is a clear indicator that our community is passionate about literacy and lifelong learning.

We continue to work strategically at PCCLD to remain fully engaged with our customers, and we have several key initiatives in mind for 2014 to help ensure we stay on track. Here are a few of the highlights anticipated for 2014. Leading the way is our plan to open three newly-constructed libraries in underserved areas, including on the St. Charles Mesa, on the City of Pueblo's East Side, and in the Greenhorn Valley in Southern Pueblo County. In addition, we will complete remodeling of the Rawlings Library's 2nd floor. We also will continue to move our library into the 21st century by offering thousands of streaming movies, TV shows, music albums, and audiobooks free to our users on their mobile devices, smart TVs, and more via a new service called hoopla digital. Finally, we will update and replace all of the public-use computers and update the audio-visual technology in public meeting rooms to the most current products available. I feel certain that these and other goals for the new year will keep our library moving forward to be the best that we can be.

I am proud that our community remains passionate about its public library. We work hard to keep the needs and wants of our customers as our top priority. I truly believe that 2014 will be our best year, yet!

I am Malala : the girl who stood up for education and was shot by the Taliban by Malala Yousafzai
Monday, Jan. 6, 7 p.m.

When the Taliban took control of the Swat Valley in Pakistan, one girl spoke out. Malala Yousafzai refused to be silenced and fought for her right to an education. On Tuesday, October 9, 2012, when she was fifteen, she almost paid the ultimate price. She was shot in the head at point-blank range while riding the bus home from school, and few expected her to survive.

Instead, Malala's miraculous recovery has taken her on an extraordinary journey from a remote valley in northern Pakistan to the halls of the United Nations in New York. At sixteen, she has become a global symbol of peaceful protest and the youngest nominee ever for the Nobel Peace Prize.

Barkman, Lamb, Library @ the Y, Pueblo West and Rawlings libraries will be closed Monday, Jan. 20 for Martin Luther King Jr. holiday.

She is suddenly transferred to work as a bartender at a pub in a small town along the Venetian Lagoon. The pub is the hangout of the local fishermen, including Bepi; a handsome old Slav immigrant nicknamed "The Poet." A tender, delicate friendship grows between Shun Li and Bepi. ## Outstanding Women Awards

The Pueblo City-County Library District is now accepting nominations for the 2014 Outstanding Women Awards. For more than 30 years, these awards have honored women who have made important contributions to our community and have celebrated the important role that women have played in Pueblo's history. These awards provide an opportunity for any individual or organization to honor a special woman who has made an impact. The only criteria is that the woman must be a resident of Pueblo County currently or during the time the award honors. The person does not have to be living to be honored. The awards will be presented during Women's History Month on Friday, March 14 at noon.

Nomination forms are available at Pueblo public libraries and online at pueblolibrary.org/contests. ## Friends of the Library president's corner

by Mary Simmons Couch

The Friends of the Library rely heavily on all our dedicated volunteers. This month, I respectfully recognize two integral volunteers, Bea and Marvin Jones. Bea and Marv became active Friends volunteers in 2007, soon after relocating to Pueblo from Gunnison, Colo. Both retired from Western State College. We are so lucky to have "The Jonz" on our team! Together, Bea and Marv donate over 850 man hours to the bookstore annually. Bea, a systems analyst, coordinates our voluminous romance section; Marv, a systems engineer, handles science fiction. Their interests outside Books Again include swimming, running, snorkeling and free diving. In addition, they operate a web management and design business. Thank you, Marvin and Bea; we value your contributions and your friendship!

Membership chairman, Carol King, reports that as of Dec. 1, 2013, membership in the Friends of the Library totaled 878. We, the Friends board, have set a goal of 1,000 members by May 1, 2014. Please consider joining Friends if you are not already a member. Memberships start as low as $15 annually! Membership entitles you to a discount every day at Books Again, as well as invitations to our "members only" special sales. Membership is a great way to support our library! Please see the membership application form on the last page of this newsletter.

In January, the Friends of the Library look forward to preparing for our next round of projects for the library. Projects are requests by library employees for tools they need to continue to provide superior customer service. We will also send additional funds to the Pueblo Library Foundation in January towards our three new community libraries opening later this year.
