Library services during the Barkman and Lamb closures

The Barkman and Lamb branches will close Dec. 31 for about one month to undergo technological makeovers. The Rawlings, Pueblo West and Library @ the Y libraries will be open during this time.

Barkman and Lamb customers may request extended checkout periods for most books, puppets and books on CD at the Lamb and Barkman libraries until the closures. Extended checkout periods will not be extended for DVDs, music CDs and video games.

In order to pick up your items placed on hold during the Barkman and Lamb closures, those items on hold must be picked up at the Rawlings, Pueblo West and Library @ the Y libraries. Check-in times for items returned to the Barkman and Lamb book drops may be delayed up to 24 hours due to the closures. If items need to be checked-in quickly, please return these items to Rawlings, Pueblo West and the Library @ the Y.

Thank you for your patience during this time. Library staff members look forward to opening the newly remodeled Barkman and Lamb branches in about one month. For information regarding library services and updates on this event, please call 562-5600 and/or access Library Enhancement Project under News and Events on the Library's website at www.pueblolibrary.org.

Rawlings and Pueblo West Libraries under construction

Starting Jan. 2, construction will be taking place at night at the Rawlings and Pueblo West libraries to upgrade their respective customer service areas with Automated Material Handling and Radio Frequency Identification systems. AMH will help process library check-ins and check-outs more efficiently and RFID will make for easier self-checks and enable returned materials to be more readily available. The upgrades will improve overall customer service and will take approximately 3-4 weeks to complete.

At the Rawlings Library, customer service will be relocated temporarily to the Thurston Room located on the 1st floor, which is directly left of the counter where customer service is usually provided. Signs will be posted to help direct customers to the proper location.

At the Pueblo West Library, two fully-functional circulation/help desks will assist customers during the reconstruction phase. One will be located directly to the right when entering the building, the other will be located near the self-checks.

An influx of customers is expected at Pueblo West and Rawlings during this time due to the overflow associated with the Barkman and Lamb branch closures.

January will be a progressive month for the Pueblo City-County Library District. The community can look forward to more modern, efficient and accessible library service in 2013.

During the first 3 weeks of January, a temporary circulation desk will be in operation at the Rawlings Library directly left of where the usual circulation area is located. The circulation department will undergo technological upgrades to provide for more advanced and efficient library services.

Local history online

by Jon Walker

History is important. Studying and understanding it can help us better understand ourselves and our future. This is why it is important that Pueblo City-County Library District maintains significant portions of our local and regional history. These collections are primarily kept on the third floor of the Rawlings Library and in a special collection about Pueblo West at the Pueblo West Library. We welcome the public to visit and use these materials.

PCCLD now has made plans to broaden access to these important materials by creating digital versions of the originals. By doing so, we are able to make them available more conveniently on the Internet. Genealogists, researchers, students, educators and others will have easier ability to use them. This also serves us well by helping preserve the originals, which sometimes can be fragile and easily damaged from handling.

Key components of the plan to digitize these historical documents include consideration of best practices and standards. This will help ensure the materials will be more conveniently available for many years to come. The library also recently set up a digital asset management system, which is software to allow storage and

This 1939 photo of Lake Clara bridge, boat house and retaining wall located in Mineral Palace Park is just one of the many historic local and regional images accessible via the Pueblo City-County Library's District Digital Collection's Internet database. discovery of the digitized documents on the Internet.

PCCLD has been working on this project with the guidance of Maria Tucker, Manager of Library Special Collections and Museum Services.

The first selections from the collection were made available for the public to view online last month via the library's website. This initial offering includes more than 800 historic photographs. Browse, search and view these historical images that document growth and change in Pueblo. More documents will be added on a regular basis in the upcoming months. Keep posted to the library's website for more exciting announcements on this new service soon to come.

AIDS quilt exhibit

Open until Jan. 2
Rawlings Library
InfoZone - 4th floor

The Rawlings Library display in recognition of World Aids Day will be open until Wednesday, Jan. 2. Supported by a number of local agencies, this project honors those who have lost the battle with HIV/AIDS.

Sixteen years ago, Lou Mercer, a volunteer with the Southern Colorado AIDS Project, attended a class on how to make panels for the National AIDS Quilt Campaign. From that class, Lou launched a project to honor local people by making smaller versions of the panels.

Children partake in the Youth Services Gingerbread Madness event held on Dec. 8 at the Rawlings Library. Making a gingerbread house is not only fun, it tastes pretty good too.

Students performed the theatrical production of Plainsong from Dec. 6-8 at Centennial High School. The novel Plainsong by Kent Haruf was the All Pueblo Reads selection in 2012.

'Tis the season to be jolly! A boy adorns a Christmas tree with a handmade paper ornament available to all children at the Youth Services desk located on the 1st floor of the Rawlings Library.

The Friends of the Library Youth Creative Writing Contest awards were held on Dec. 6 at the InfoZone on the 4th floor of the Rawlings Library. Winners displayed their certificates of achievement as well as their pearly-white smiles. For a full-listing of the winners, visit News and Events/Contests on the library website at www.pueblolibrary.org.

Community cinema

Soul Food Junkies (NR)
Saturday, Jan. 19 at noon

Soul food lies at the heart of African American cultural identity. The black community's love affair with soul food is deep-rooted, complex and in some cases deadly. Soul Food Junkies, by Byron Hurt, puts this culinary tradition under the microscope to examine both its significance and its consequences.

Independent movie

Free Men (NR)
Saturday, Jan. 19 at 7 p.m.

In German-occupied Paris, a young unemployed Algerian named Younes (played by break-out star, Tahar Rahim) earns his living as a black marketeer. Arrested by the French police but given a chance to avoid jail, Younes agrees to spy on the Paris Mosque. The police suspect the Mosque authorities, including its rector Ben Ghabrit, of aiding Muslim Resistance agents and helping North African Jews by giving them false certificates. At the Mosque, Younes meets the Algerian singer Salim Halali, and is moved by Salim's beautiful voice and strong personality. When Younes discovers that Salim is Jewish, he stops collaborating with the police and gradually transforms from a politically ignorant immigrant into a fully-fledged freedom fighter.

Tahar Rahim stars in Free Men.

LEFT: The Makerbot Replicator prints a plastic object from the schematic of a 3D computer file. The possibility of items it can create are as limitless as your imagination.

Teen librarian Maria Kramer displays the Makerbot Replicator — a machine that creates a plastic object from a 3D computer model. In this photo, Kramer is making a plastic mustache from a computer file as well as wearing a bracelet that she also created from a digital image. You too can replicate your own items. Embrace your creativity and give the Makerbot Replicator a try!

Create your own 3D objects with the Makerbot Replicator

The Rawlings Library has acquired its own Makerbot Replicator — a 3D printer available for public use. 3D printing is a cutting-edge technology that transforms a digital image into a plastic three-dimensional object that you can use. From toys to tools, the possibilities of 3D printing are limitless!

2013 Outstanding Women's Awards now accepting nominations!

The Pueblo City-County Library District is now accepting nominations for the 2012 Outstanding Women Awards. For more than 30 years, these awards have honored women who have made important contributions to our community and have celebrated the important role that women have played in Pueblo's history. These awards provide an opportunity for any individual or organization to honor a special woman who has made an impact. The only criteria is that the woman must be a resident of Pueblo County currently or during the time the award honors. The person does not have to be living to be honored. The awards will be presented during Women's History Month on Friday, March 15 at noon.

Nomination forms are available at Pueblo public libraries and online at pueblolibrary.org/contests. Nominations must be received no later than 5 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 8. For more information, please contact Susan Wolf at 553-0220 or susan.wolf@pueblolibrary.org.

2012 recipients of the Outstanding Woman Award with the winner of the 2012 Pueblo Girl Essay Contest, Anna Montalbano.

Pueblo Girl Essay Contest now underway

All Pueblo girls in grades 4 and 5 are invited to write an essay about their future. Young ladies, please tell us about the woman you want to be and what you will do to become that woman! The winner will receive an American Girl Doll!

Submission forms are available at Pueblo public libraries and online at pueblolibrary.org.

Essays must be typed and be 700 words or less. Submissions must be received no later than 5 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 8. The winner will be honored at the Outstanding Women Awards luncheon at noon on Friday, March 15. For more information, please contact Susan Wolf at 553-0220 or susan.wolf@pueblolibrary.org.

Pueblo Home of the Heroes Association Essay Contest

The Pueblo Home of Heroes Association invites students in grades 4-12 to write an essay on the following topic: What one word best describes the United States of American and why? Winners will be honored at an awards ceremony at the Rawlings Library at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, March 20.

Please see the contest entry form for contest requirements. Forms are available at Pueblo public libraries and online at pueblolibrary.org/contests. Entries must be received no later than 5 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 15. For more information, please contact: Paulette Stuart at 719-544-2435 or email: jhmpstuart@comcast.net.

Friends of the Library president's corner

by P. Michael Vout

The Friends of the Pueblo Library are thriving. Membership recently passed the 920 level and is still increasing. The board has added a new category of membership at the "platinum" level, which requires a $50 contribution. The change is effective Jan. 1, 2013. The other choices (from $15 to $500 per year) remain intact. As you know, free access to the newsletter, early admittance to book sales and discounts on books purchased at Books Again are some of the benefits of membership.

We welcomed two new board members this fall: Beth Bryant and Doreen Martinez. Doreen is our new recording secretary. After the resignation of our vice president, Judy Wodishek has stepped in to fill the remaining term (until the end of our fiscal year, which is April 30). There is still a vacancy on the board, and anyone interested in joining can get an application form at Books Again. The form also gives a short description of the duties of a board member. They are not onerous.

Book sales, which earlier this year had weakened some, have leveled off, and we are hopeful that, with the help of our new Publicity Committee, they will resume their upward curve.

Doreen Martinez

At this time of the year, it is appropriate to mention that we are looking for nominations for the Friend of the Year Award. Although nominations may be submitted now and until March 15, it is not too early to get the process underway. Nomination forms and a listing of criteria for this honor are available at Books Again. It goes without saying that nominees have to be members of the Friends.

Happy New Year to all you book lovers!

Finding peace for Vietnam veterans

Monday Jan. 14

Monday, Feb. 11 and Monday, March 11

1:30-2:30 p.m.

Rawlings Library, InfoZone Theater - 4th floor

Brad Boe, Communications Director of Sangre de Cristo Hospice & Palliative Care, helped develop a series of television programs called Back Behind the Bamboo Curtain. This series followed Vietnam veterans as they returned to the country in which they fought so valiantly and lost so much. The program was sponsored by Tours of Peace, a nonprofit 501(c)3 organization created in 1998 for helping veterans and their families in the process of healing by seeing Vietnam as it is today.

Philip Kittle, PhD, Corporate Chaplain of Sangre de Cristo Hospice & Palliative Care will present the documentaries. All Vietnam veterans and their family members are welcome to attend and visit with Dr. Kittle about the process of recovery.

Book Connections: Radical Survivor

Monday, Jan. 28 at 6:30 p.m.

Rawlings Library

InfoZone Theater - 4th floor

"I'm sorry. There were no survivors." Nancy Saltzman tried to absorb the caller's words. Her entire family, Joel, Adam, and Seth Herzog, had perished in a small-plane crash. The caller was wrong, though. There was a survivor — Nancy would have to go on living. She had beaten cancer twice, but how could even the most resilient spirit live through this ultimate loss?

Radical Survivor tells how the author was able to heal and embrace life after she traversed the full spectrum of human emotions. Read her book, listen to the author and prepare for an unforgettable journey that will change you forever.
