KICKOFF CONCERT

Orbit the Gipsy Moon: A family concert
Friday, Oct. 2

6:30-8:30 p.m., RA, 2nd floor

With music as their carriage, strings as their weapon and the horizon as their aim, this unconventional band is not one to be missed. Residing in Nederland, Colo., Gipsy Moon's sound is something like a backwoods hoedown meets the smoking basement of a New York jazz club. Their exciting new dimension is one that hippies and poets, lovers and dancers, freaks and families alike can all come together and dance until the night fades and the sun rises up again. Drinks and hors d'oeuvres will be served. Free and open to the public.

New Frontiers: Exploring Sci-Fi exhibit
Friday, Oct. 2, 5:30-6:30 p.m.

RA, InfoZone
-4th floor

All Pueblo Reads: Celebrate Sci-Fi

by Jon Walker

October 2015 marks PCCLD's sponsorship for the eleventh consecutive year of All Pueblo Reads.

All Pueblo Reads 2015: Celebrate Sci-Fi is our effort to help cultivate a culture of learning and discussion in our community by bringing everyone together around reading great books. Reading splendid literature leads us to examine ourselves, our relationships and the world around us. Talking about great literature with friends, family and neighbors adds richness and depth to our lives. The goal for All Pueblo Reads is for everyone to be reading great books at the same time to foster community-wide book discussions.

This year, we have selected four wonderful books set in the future: Suzanne Collin's adventurous Hunger Games series, Veronica Roth's 2011 debut blockbuster Divergent, Orson Scott Card's sci-fi classic Ender's Game, and Lois Lowry's award-winning dystopian novel The Giver.

A myriad of events and activities have been scheduled in conjunction with All Pueblo Reads 2015: Celebrate Sci-Fi. These include book discussions, film screenings, musical and theatrical performances and more. Programs begin in October and continue into early November. We also have arranged for plenty of copies of these wonderful books to be available at each of our local libraries for your reading pleasure.

Please join in the learning and fun for All Pueblo Reads 2015: Celebrate Sci-Fi.

Trustee talk

by Lyndell Gairaud

October is the month when PCCLD celebrates All Pueblo Reads. This event encourages our community to read the same story and engage in discussion and conversation about a central topic. There are many events scheduled at all our library branches to help our reading public explore the theme.

The theme this year is Sci-Fi! Okay, not my first choice of reading material, but I have started one of the four featured books and I am enjoying it. Who knew? Two of the four books happen to be on my son's all time favorite reading list so we are talking about them again, this time as two adults rather than as parent and child. And this is exactly what All Pueblo Reads aspires to do.

Won't you join us? Check out your copies now of The Hunger Games, Divergent, Ender's Game and The Giver. Check them out as hard copy books, e-books or audio books. PCCLD gives you lots of choices. Share your thoughts with your co-workers, your friends and your neighbors. Visit one of our branches and participate in an event. All Pueblo Reads 2015: Celebrate Sci-Fi. Join in the fun.

Friends of the Library president's corner

by Doreen Martinez

As an employee of any organization knows, competent and reliable co-workers are a rare find. A cooperative and productive staff is surely to be treasured.

Working as the Friends of the Library president has truly shown me just how honored we are as an organization to have such dedicated and professional volunteers who serve as both board members and bookstore staff. I will not mention names because I would probably unintentionally omit some who are deserving. However, I would like to recognize the book sale committee and volunteers who put in many hours of hard work to create an atmosphere that is enjoyable to our staff and patrons. The 10th anniversary sale was very successful and it was one of the most profitable sales Books Again has held to date. I would like to sincerely thank each volunteer who takes the time to help our organization and ultimately, the Pueblo City-County Library District, to grow and serve our community.

This month, Books Again will hold its Books by the Bag Sale. Books will be sold by the bag for $8. Individual books will be marked for sale at $1 for hardbacks and 50¢ for paperbacks. The sale will be held Oct. 1-3. Oct. 1 is a "members only" day for those who are members of Friends of the Library. If you are not currently an active member, you can sign up on Oct. 1 and reap the benefits being among the first shoppers at the sale.

The monthly hardback sale at Books Again will feature authors whose last names begin with the letter "S."

The annual scary story contest will be awarded on Oct. 28 at 7 p.m. in the Ryals Room of the Rawlings Library. The next PCCLD contest will be the Creative Writing Contest. The deadline for entries is Oct. 30.

The project selection committee will review requests to fund projects from the PCCLD staff this month. The funding decisions will be announced next month.

As always, you can always support the Pueblo City-County Library District by becoming a member of Friends of the Library. Simply fill out the membership form found on the last page of this newsletter or stop by Books Again. Volunteer opportunities are always available at Books Again. Feel free to give the store a call to inquire about current opportunities.
