Summer of Fun at Your Library

By Jon Walker

It's almost time! School is about to let out for summer. You can almost feel the excitement rising - along with the temperature.

The imaginations of boys and girls throughout Pueblo County are turning to other pursuits - outdoor activities and play, summer jobs, vacations and the like.

Our hope is for young people to find time this summer to visit their local library and to read.

We don't really care too much what you read, either. It can be high-brow classic literature or an entertaining graphic novel. Just read!

Studies show young people who read and go to the library during the summer are better prepared when returning to their studies in the fall. Young people who read do succeed.

We are offering special incentives this summer for young readers and library visitors. It is all part of our Summer Reading Club. The Club kicks off on June 6th and runs through August. It is free to join and open to the public.

For kids in fifth grade and younger, the club is called Dragons, Dreams and Daring Deeds. The teen club is Joust Read.

For participants, we have prizes and activities. We hope this is just the thing to keep you reading all summer long.

We also offer eight weeks of entertainment. The younger children will enjoy watching nationally-recognized performer, Christopher Maier and others. Teen programming includes programs on learning how to juggle, fence, make paper and do magic tricks.

Look for more details in our colorful, oversized brochures available at all thirteen library locations - the main library, the three branches, or any of nine satellites.

Plus this year you can participate in the Summer Reading Club at the City of Pueblo's Mitchell and Minnequa Parks with our innovative "Books in the Park" program.

We offer a special thank you to our partners for the Summer Reading Club: KOAA Channels 5/30, the Friends of the Library, Rotary International, Wells Fargo Bank, Pueblo Kiwanis Club, Cold Stone Ice Creamery, Clark's Western Store, the Historic Arkansas Riverwalk of Pueblo, J&D Business Services, Golden Corral, Burger King, Bessemer Historical Society, Pueblo Records and Tapes, Musicman CDs and Tapes, Young at Heart Dentistry, Dr. Craig Hunter, Dr. Ronald Ragulsky, Wendy's, Country Buffet, 7-11 Stores, and the law firm of Altman, Keilbach, Lytle, Parlapiano and Ware.

Children listen to a presenter at the Rawlings Library.

The Adult Services Department at the Pueblo City-County Library District continues to support the efforts of nonprofits in the south-eastern Colorado region.

The Library was recently approved as a member of the Cooperating Collection network and is planning a number of workshops throughout the year to promote the collection and assist the philanthropic community.

As a continued theme, the next workshop offered will be Why do you Need a Case Statement? presented by Brinah Acton, Effective Fundraising Management.

A case statement is a compelling message about your organization's vision.

It is the backbone for all your organization's communication and fundraising messages. It's how you tell potential donors, foundations, volunteers and the broader community about why your organization exists.

A good case statement also helps your organization consistently remain "on message."

This will be a working session. Please bring copies of your organization's marketing and fundraising materials. Also bring a list of your current programs/projects and financials.

The documentary film, Los Veteranos, comes to the InfoZone News Museum.

The 30-minute documentary, produced and directed by Pueblo native George Autabee, looks at the many Hispanic veterans who served our country.

The film includes America's Hispanic Medal of Honor recipients and stories about local Hispanic veterans.

"I didn't see anything on TV reflecting our story. There were war pictures but no Hispanic faces in them," Autabee said.

Autabee was wounded twice in combat and awarded the Purple Heart with gold star.

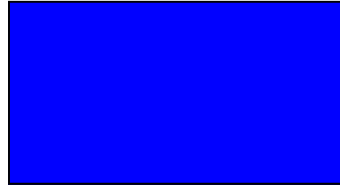

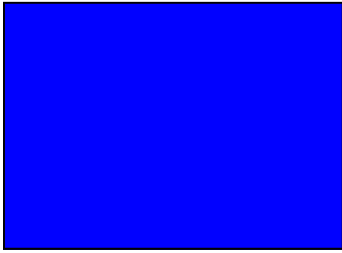

After the war, he returned to Pueblo and earned a degree in sociology from what is now Colorado State University-Pueblo.

He earned a master's degree in urban planning from the University of Northern Colorado.

Autabee is President/CEO of World Demographic Research, LLC and currently makes his residence in Denver.

Autabee's ancestor is Colorado pioneer Charles Autabee, who was one of the first settlers of Pueblo.

Books in the Park: Minnequa Park at Bessemer & Mitchell Park

By Barbara Brown

In an effort to keep kids reading during the summer, the Pueblo City-county Library District is expanding their "Books in the Park" to include Mitchell Park as well as Minnequa Park at Bessemer this year.

Carts of books will be rolled off a big trailer and will be available for checkout at each of the parks.

In addition, we have invited some of our Community Leaders to read stories to families.

Crafts will be provided through a joint effort with the Pueblo Parks & Recreation Department.

Prizes for reading and drawings will be held. A "Knight in Shining Armor" will read stories and Felicia Sanchez, first runner-up for the Fiesta Queen, will present a bilingual story time.

For hours and more information, call 562-5631.

So come on out to the parks June 6-August 13 and let your imagination run wild with Dragons, Dreams, and Daring Deeds!

Family Story Time

Thursdays in June starting June 9 at 7:30 p.m.
Barkman Branch

Paula Pryich will read
The Phantom Tollbooth
By Norton Juster

This ingenious fantasy centers around Milo, a bored ten-year-old, who comes home to find a large toy tollbooth sitting in his room. Joining forces with a watchdog named Tock, Milo drives through the tollbooth's gates and begins a memorable journey. He meets such characters as the foolish, yet lovable Humbug, the Mathemagician, and the not-so-wicked "Which," Faintly Macabre, who gives Milo the "impossible" mission of returning two princesses to the Kingdom of Wisdom.

Assignment Pueblo: Reporters Notebook

When it comes to fun places to go and see, Pueblo has many things to offer. The InfoZone News Museum is encouraging kids to get out and explore our community this summer.

Kids can pick up an Assignment Pueblo: Reporter's Notebook at the InfoZone desk all summer long.

This fun activity book is sponsored in part by The Pueblo Chieftain. It is designed for children, kindergarten through eighth grade. Each page of the Reporter's Notebook is devoted to an attraction in Pueblo. They will be able to get in free to many of the attractions when they show their Reporter's Notebook.

Children can write a news article or draw a picture of all the new sights and places they've discovered in town.

At the end of the summer, kids who return their notebooks—which need to be at least 50 percent completed—to the InfoZone, will be entered into a drawing for the best entry.

Ten winners will get a cool prize just in time for school: InfoZone backpacks filled with school supplies that can be shared with friends.

To learn more about Assignment Pueblo: Reporters Notebook and Celebrate Pueblo! activities, visit the InfoZone News Museum on the fourth floor of the Rawlings Public Library, or call 562-5604.

Friends of the Library President's Corner By Jane Milne

"Life is simply a matter of concentration: You are what you set out to be. The things you read today are the things you become tomorrow. You are a composite of the things you say, the books you read, the thoughts you think, the company you keep and the things you desire to become." Author anonymous.

For many months the Friends of the Library Board had been discussing the possibility of starting a year round used book store. On Tuesday, March 29, 2005 this idea was unanimously approved.

The site location is 622 S. Union, just east of the Rawlins Library.

We are very appreciative of the cooperative support from Jon Walker, Library Director; Jerry King, Financial Officer; and Gary Martino, Facilities Superintendent. You will be hearing much more about this exciting development in the weeks ahead. STAY TUNED!

In the meantime, you can help us by sorting through your books (a project you've been meaning to do - right?) and donating them to the Friends. If there are too many for you to transport to us, call the Friends' office at 553-0221 and we will help. Also, remind your friends that we accept books all year round.

Edna Shoaf, our contributing editor, will take a look at our Outstanding Women's Award nominee, Donna Seilheimer. This is Donna's second time to serve on our board. What a life of service she has led. I know you will enjoy reading about her.

Meet the Board of Directors By Edna Shoaf

The Outstanding Women's Award program was established in 1990 and organized by the Women's History Committee to recognize the contributions that women make to the Pueblo community, to establish a historical record or those activities, and to acknowledge the women for what they have achieved.

A number of community organizations in Pueblo nominate a person whom the members of the organization feel personifies this criteria.

This year the Friends of the Library are proud to announce that one of the members of the Friends' Board was nominated for this honor.

Donna R. Seilheimer has been active in the field of education for many years. In her career as a teacher (1960-1996), Donna taught grades 1-8, was in-involved in McClelland Learning Institute, served as an exchange teacher to Aspen and as a consultant and supervisor of Title I Summer Reading Programs.

She was Teacher on Special Assignment with the Department of Curriculum, inservicing teachers and principals, and she also taught Adult Basic Education and was Education Coordinator for Project Developmental Continuity.

Volunteerism is an integral part of Donna's life. She is a Sunday school teacher and, since 1985, has been an ordained minister and serves as a spiritual care volunteer for Hospice. Donna volunteered as an International Exchange Coordinator for EF Foundation for Foreign Study, placing and supervising over 100 foreign exchange students and, since 1999, has been the Regional Advisor for Outreach International. She and her husband, Jack, have also been host parents for 15 foreign exchange students.

Donna is presently active on the Friends' Board and has served as a past president of the Board.

She can always be found bustling around here and there at the annual book sale held in the fall of each year.

She is on the Symphony Board and President of the Pueblo Symphony Friends Board.

Donna's husband, four children, nine grandchildren, and one-great-grandchild surely must be proud of the many accomplishments of the multi-talented lady with the lovely white hair, the sweet smile, and the pleasantly-speaking voice.

Donna, we on the Board of the Friends of the Library salute you!

Bountiful Indulgence by Rebecca Sutton White Branch

As I walk through the door I notice the constantly dusty room, nearly dead silence is all I hear.

I experience its never-ending wisdom on any subject of which one can dream.

Dizzying sights of murder, fantasy, truth, love and lies all swirl together within my vision.

I find myself searching both the heights and depths in tandem and my breath is stolen.

While looking at listening I can almost hear their screams, moans and sighs.

Imagination is so vast here that I have yet to discover where fiction ends and truth begins.

It is a wealth of learning and enjoyment.

It is the Library.
