All Pueblo Reads

by Jon Walker

It is October, so it is time for All Pueblo Reads. For the sixth straight year, the Pueblo City-County Library District is pleased to present this annual series of events to our community which focuses on the themes of a great book. We are honored to offer The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian by Sherman Alexie as this year's selection. It is our hope and belief that this book will resonate with the residents of Pueblo County.

The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian by Sherman Alexie won the 2007 National Book Award for young people's literature. One reviewer described this book this way: "In his first book for young adults, bestselling author Sherman Alexie tells the story of Junior, a budding cartoonist who leaves his school on the Spokane Indian Reservation to attend an all-white high school. This heartbreaking, funny, and beautifully written tale, coupled with poignant drawings that reflect the character's art, is based on the author's own experiences and chronicles the contemporary adolescence of one Native American boy as he attempts to break away from the life he seems destined to live."

This is the first year the library will receive a $10,000 grant from the Friends of the Library in support of the project. This gift has made it possible to have Sherman Alexie in Pueblo for two public programs, with our featured program being Alexie's appearance at the Rawlings Library on October 24. You will not want to miss the opportunity to meet this renowned author in person, hear him speak and have him sign your books.

Please join me in reading this great book and participating in many of the more than 80 events made possible by All Pueblo Reads.

You can reach Pueblo City-County Library District's Executive Director, Jon Walker, by calling 562-5633 or emailing jon.walker@pueblolibrary.org.

Barkman's 20th birthday party

Saturday, Oct. 30 from noon to 3 p.m.

Barkman Library

1 p.m. - "Busker & Me" presented by the Manitou Arts Theater

2 p.m. - Video - Barkman's Memories

The Barkman Public Library is celebrating its 20th birthday party on Saturday, Oct. 30 from noon to 3 p.m. The Barkman Library was first opened on October 22, 1990. The celebration will include a party for families and children, including pizza and a birthday cake. A Halloween costume contest for kids will include prizes for the best dog themed costume.

A children's program entitled "Busker & Me" will be presented by the Manitou Arts Theater at 1 p.m. Welcome world class clown Jim Jackson as he brings to life the adventures of "Busker" the circus dog using puppetry, juggling, magic and many hilarious stunts. Years ago, Jim Jackson traveled with the Hoxie Bros. Circus as a clown and juggler.

His constant companion was the Jack Russell Terrier "Busker" who was known "as a pretty good dog, but not a great dog". Drawing on years of adventures together, Jim has created a puppet version of "Busker" that has audiences of all ages laughing out loud at the impossible antics of "one bad dog".

A short video will be shown at 2 p.m. entitled "Barkman Memories" on the history and role the Barkman Library has played in the Belmont community. Celebrate the 20th anniversary of the Barkman Library and bring your kids to this neighborhood birthday party.

A summer reading club event at Barkman in June.

ALL PUEBLO READS SPECIAL EVENTS

All events are free and open to the public except where noted. Events listed chronologically.

Pueblo's First Friday Art Walk Friday, Oct. 1 from 5 to 8 p.m.

Historic Union Avenue gallery shows and live performances focus on Native American Art themes.

Mestizaje Panel Wednesday, Oct. 6 at 6:30 p.m. Rawlings Library, InfoZone Museum

When the Spanish arrived in the New World they did not bring any women with them right away. Miscegenation took place between the Spanish and natives which resulted in a new race known as Mestizos – half Spanish/half Native. Come listen to a panel that will discuss what happened to the children of these unions.

Sandcreek Massacre Thursday, Oct. 7 at 6:30 p.m. Rawlings Library, InfoZone Museum

The Sand Creek Massacre took place Nov. 29, 1864. That morning, 650 Colorado volunteers attacked a village of Cheyenne and Arapaho Indians. A representative from the Sandcreek Massacre National Historic Site sheds light on this tragic event.

Song of Pueblo Friday, Oct. 8 at 7 p.m. Doors open at 6 p.m. El Pueblo Museum, 301 N. Union Ave.

Song of Pueblo is a live, multi-media presentation that entertains the audience with stories and songs based on centuries of regional history. The program includes 14 original compositions illustrated with filmed reenactments and historical images with live narration. El Pueblo Ensemble, comprised of four area musicians, performs the music. Noted actor, musician and director, Daniel Valdez composed the music and lyrics. Tickets are $15 and are for sale at El Pueblo History Museum. Call 583-0453 for more details.

CF&I Valdez Rug Project Saturday, Oct. 9 from 3 to 4 p.m. Steelworks Museum, 215 Canal St. Bessemer Community Room

Join Steelworks Museum curator Victoria Miller for a presentation on CF&I's Valdez Rug weaving-project, which was created by the company during the depths of the Great Depression. Refreshments will be served. Reservations are required. For more information or to make reservations, call 564-9086.

Understanding Amache: The Archaeobiography of a Victorian Era Cheyenne Woman Wednesday, Oct. 13 at 6:30 p.m. Rawlings Library, InfoZone Museum

Dr. Bonnie Clark presents on the life of Amache Ochinee Prowers, a woman who lived between two worlds in early Southern Colorado. Daughter of a Cheyenne sub-chief and married into Anglo-Victorian Society, Clark examines Amache's life by using documents (biography) and analyzing material remains associated with her life (archaeology). Clark is an associate professor at the University of Denver and a professional archaeologist whose work has focused on using the tangible past - artifacts, architecture, settlement patterns--to tell a more inclusive history of western North America.

Amache Ochinee Prowers

Cosmic Forces and Mayan Spirituality Thursday, Oct. 14 at 5:30 p.m. Rawlings Library, Ryals Room

Miguel Angel Chiquin

Miguel Angel Chiquin is a Mayan elder from Guatemala who is helping mankind prepare the 'path of light' of 2012. Chiquin is a spiritual guide and keeper of wisdom related to the basic tenets of Mayan Spirituality, which include their calendar, 2012, the 20 cosmic forces (of which the Universe is created) and the four forces (which inform you of your truest self and your purpose).

Thunder on the Prairie: Native American Activism in the 1970s Friday, Oct. 15 from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. Rawlings Library, InfoZone Museum

Join local historian Michael Engle as he shows, through photos and discussion, how the American Indian Movement (AIM) of the 1960s challenged America's assumptions about Native Americans and reshaped Native American identity in the 20th century.

A Grand Exchange Food Program
Monday, Oct. 18 at 6 p.m.
Rawlings Library, Ryals Room

Join us for a fun evening of discovering Native American foods, medicinal herbs, and spices. What foods were here when the Europeans arrived? What foods did the Europeans bring? What foods were taken back to Europe? There were some good exchanges but some unhealthy ones also.

Simply Classic...
One Nation United in Song
Tuesday, Oct. 19 at 7 p.m.
CSU-Pueblo, Hoag Hall

The Pueblo Children's Chorale with guest choirs from local school districts will join in concert to present a musical celebration of Native American Culture. The talented voices of over 150 students will stimulate the readers of The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian to imagine their own journey through Native America. This concert is performed in conjunction with Pueblo City-County Library's, "All Pueblo Reads" Program. Tickets cost $5 per person and may be purchased at the Loft Coffeehouse or at the door.

Rural Poverty in The South: Race,
Sport, and the American Dream
presented by Earl Smith
Thursday, Oct. 21 at 7 p.m.
CSU-Pueblo University ballroom

Professor Earl Smith draws a number of lessons from his book, Race, Sport, and the American Dream. While sport promises to fulfill athletes' dreams, the road to success often contains more potholes and pitfalls that most people realize.

Sport and Education: Climbing the Ladder of Success
Friday, Oct. 22 at 10 a.m.
Rawlings Library, InfoZone Museum

Professor Earl Smith will talk about the benefits of sport, but he will emphasize that, even for the most successful athletes, the most important goal is a good education.

Poetry Jam Night
Friday, Oct. 22 at 7 p.m.
Pueblo West Library, King Room

Writing poetry is a solitary pursuit, but the power of the words is most piquant when read aloud and shared. This event is an energetic gathering to share and enjoy poetry readings and activities. All ages and years of writing experience are welcome to participate. Sign-up is required, and guidelines for participation will be followed. For a sign-up form and the guidelines, please contact Cindy Shimizu at cindy.shimizu@pueblolibrary.org.

Basketball on the Rez: The Story of the Chiefs, Chiefs movie screening & director appearance
Saturday, Oct. 23 at 3:30 p.m.
Rawlings Library, InfoZone Museum

Winner of the Best Documentary prize at the 2002 Tribeca Film Festival, Chiefs chronicles the Wyoming Indian High School basketball team's efforts to become state champs while struggling with everyday life on the reservation. Following the Chiefs over a two-year period, Daniel Junge's heartwarming film captures the experience of the players who become a symbol of hope and empowerment for the residents of the Wind River Indian Reservation. Director Daniel Junge will be at the showing to speak about the film.

Sources for Native American Research at the National Archives
Monday, Oct. 25 at 6:30 p.m.
Rawlings Library, InfoZone Museum

Join Eric Bittner, Certified Archivist at The National Archives, for a tour through the collection related to American Indians. Learn about the collection and how to research using the archival resources. The National Archives holds information about American Indians who maintained their ties to Federally-recognized Tribes.

Hispanic and Native American Herbalism
Friday, Oct. 29 at 1 p.m.
Rawlings Library, Ryals Room

Have you ever wondered what Spanish and Native American women of old El Pueblo used to cure a stomach ache, calm a cough or sooth a fever? Discover the uses of our native plants from past to present when rural herbalist Teresa de Jesus Belinda Vigil shares her family's remedios (or remedies) with us in a one-of-a-kind event.

ALL PUEBLO READS WRITING WORKSHOPS

Writing Marathon Saturday, Oct. 9 from 1 to 5 p.m. Rawlings Library, InfoZone Theatre

Come and enjoy a celebration of writing and our community. Writers will be given a list of participating businesses and suggestions for outdoor writing spots. Much of the afternoon will be spent exploring these locations, writing about them and the overall experience, and sharing writing with others. At the end of the day, we gather together and share our writing in a read-around. The event is free but requires a reservation. Email or call the Southern Colorado Writing Project office for more information or to make a reservation: scwponline@gmail.com or 549-2595.

Cultures and Landscapes: A Writing Workshop Saturday, Oct. 16 10 a.m. to noon Rawlings Library, Thurston Room

This workshop will focus on the intersections of environment, home and cultural backgrounds to inspire writing breakthroughs and methods of discovering our every day experiences with our culture, which people may take for granted. These topics will allow us to look to Sherman Alexie and other writers for inspiration.

Iver Arnegard fiction-writing workshop Saturday, Oct. 23 at 10 a.m. Lamb Library

Iver Arnegard's workshop will explore fiction, non-fiction, and poetry with a particular focus on the work of visiting Spokane / Coeur d'Alene author, Sherman Alexie. Attendants will study a variety of other poets and prose writers while gaining practice in the various genres of creative writing.

Ed Posa's art will be for sale and on display at the Pueblo West Library Oct. 1 to 31.

GENEALOGY WORKSHOP

Saturday, Oct. 30 at 9 a.m.
Rawlings Library
Ryals Room ~ 4th floor

Do you want to know more about your family's history? Come to the library for a genealogy workshop where you'll learn about the importance of family and identity, how to use newspapers and how to organize your genealogy. Because this is part of the 2010 All Pueblo Reads project, a portion of the workshop will also focus on how to research Native American genealogy. This workshop is free and open to the public.

Also, pick up a handout called Researching Native American Genealogy in the Western Research and Genealogy Area of the Rawlings Library throughout October!

Kevin Locke performs on Oct. 2 at 1 p.m. and 6:30 p.m.

The Barkman, Lamb,
Library @ the Y,
Pueblo West & Rawlings
public libraries
will be closed
Monday, Oct. 11
for Columbus Day.

Reel Injun: On the Trail of the Hollywood Indian
Monday, Oct. 4 at 6:30 p.m.
Rawlings Library, InfoZone Theatre

Join Rocky Mountain PBS for a Community Cinema Screening. Hollywood has made over 4,000 films about Native people; over 100 years of movies defining how Indians are seen by the world. Reel Injun takes an entertaining and insightful look at the Hollywood Indian, exploring the portrayal of North American Natives through the history of cinema.

Tuesday Night Movies: Smoke Signals (PG-13)
Tuesday, Oct. 5 at 6:30 p.m.
Rawlings Library, InfoZone Theatre

On a Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, reservation, nothing ever changes until the estranged father of Victor Joseph (Adam Beach) bites the dust in Arizona, and Victor must go collect the cremated remains. The problem is, Victor can't afford the fare. But annoying nerd Thomas Builds-the-Fire (Evan Adams) will float Victor a loan if he can tag along. This tender tale of self-discovery is based on acclaimed author Sherman Alexie's short stories.

Windtalkers (R)
Wednesday, Oct. 6 at 6:30 p.m.
Barkman Library

Joe Enders is a gung-ho Marine assigned to protect a "windtalker," one of several Navajo Indians who were used to relay messages during World War II because their spoken language was indecipherable to Japanese code breakers. Part of Cage's mission, however, is to kill windtalker Ben Yahzee if capture appears imminent, which is always a possibility in director John Woo's high-powered action drama.

Tuesday Night Movies: Frozen River (R)
Tuesday, Oct. 12 at 6:30 p.m.
Rawlings Library, InfoZone Theatre

On a Mohawk reservation on the Canadian border, Ray Eddy (Melissa Leo) teams with widowed tribe member Lila Littlewolf (Misty Upham) to smuggle illegal immigrants into the United States. Though the work provides the women with much-needed money, each trip puts them in peril. Charlie McDermott and Michael O'Keefe also star in this drama nominated for two Oscars and multiple Independent Spirit Awards, including Best Feature.

The Business of Fancy Dancing (NR)
Saturday, Oct. 16 at 7 p.m.
Rawlings Library, InfoZone Theatre

A poetic story of growth, death and the choices that define us, this tale reunites Spokane Reservation best friends Aristotle Joseph and Seymour Polatkin sixteen years after their high school graduation. Beginning with a brief flashback to the young men's enthusiastic look to the unlimited future, the film mirrors both Aristotle and Seymour as they leave the "rez" for college in Seattle. Though these co-valedictorians left the rez for the white world in an identical state of excitement, their success in Seattle would ultimately differ dramatically and eventually set them against one another.

Book to Movie: The Last of the Mohicans (R)
Monday, Oct. 18 at 6:30 p.m.
Rawlings Library, InfoZone Theatre

When rugged frontiersman Hawkeye (Daniel Day-Lewis) saves the Munro sisters--two newly arrived English settlers--from a Huron ambush, he ends up in the midst of the battle between the British and the French for control of the American colonies. Director Michael Mann's production also stars Madeleine Stowe as the Munro sister who wins Hawkeye's heart, and Wes Studi as the Huron warrior who has a score to settle with her father.

Tuesday Night Movie: Thunderheart
Tuesday, Oct. 26 at 6:30 p.m.
Rawlings Library, InfoZone Theatre

When the FBI can't crack a string of murders on a South Dakota Indian reservation, they send in fresh-faced field agent Ray Levoi, who lacks experience but holds a trump card: his quarter Sioux heritage. His cynical boss and the local medicine man try to throw him off the trail. But as he gets closer to the truth, he must choose between upholding the law and honoring his roots.

Friends of the Library president's corner

by Annette Warfield

Greetings to all and happy October! I hope a large number of you were able to take advantage of the Friends' annual October sale. I will not be able to report the sale results until the November newsletter; but I am confident many shoppers were successful in finding fabulous treasures.

Friends of the Library Contest Committee is eager to begin activities for this fall. The first contests include: Scary Stories and Teen Design a Book Cover Contest. FOL provides judges for the Scary Stories and graciously sponsors the prizes and refreshments for the awards ceremonies. The Scary Story Contest is one of my favorite contests. As one of the judges, I am truly amazed at the creativity of all the participants. We traditionally have numerous entries and lots of fun on the evening of the awards ceremony. The awards ceremony is always a full house; it is scheduled for Oct. 27, 7 p.m., in the Ryals Room.

For the first half of 2010, Books Again reported a profit of $33,205. At the August Board meeting, the Project Selection Committee presented four project requests. After Books Again profits were deposited into the Friends' account, the Board was able to approve all four projects for funding. Friends of the Library was very proud to present PCCLD with a check for $29,542. This check will fund a 2010 cargo van, art exhibits in the Hispanic Resource Center, shelving and lighting for DVDs in the Youth Services area at the Rawlings Library and improved signage at the Barkman Library. This generous donation enables PCCLD to improve services to the Pueblo community. Thank you to all the FOL members and supporters. Your dues and continued patronage of the Books Again store enables great donations such as these. Thank you!

Don't forget we have an election coming up. If you are on the permanent mail-in ballot list, ballots will be mailed the week of Oct. 12. Otherwise be prepared to go to the polls on Nov. 2. If Amendments 60, 61 and Proposition 101 pass, services at PCCLD will be greatly reduced. FOL asks for your vote to defeat these referenda. Remember to Vote and have a spooktacular October!
