Customer Conduct

03.06.01.P2 Prohibition of Loitering, Camping and Overnight Parking

PCCLD does not permit loitering on library property. Loitering is defined by Pueblo City Ordinance Section 11-1-202 and is any behavior in which individuals linger on library property without actively using library services or facilities for their intended purposes.

Camping and overnight parking on library property are not permitted. Camping is defined as the use of an area for temporary residence, shelter or sleeping purposes. This includes using bedrolls, blankets and other such coverings, storing personal property, leaving unattended personal property, conducting cooking activities, erecting any structures, or occupying any area in a way that inhibits the use of Library property by others for an excessive period of time as determined by the Library Director or the Director's designee.

PCCLD does not provide supervision, oversight, patrolling, or response to parking lots or library grounds overnight and assumes no liability for individuals who engage in loitering, camping and overnight parking activities.

Loitering, overnight parking and camping on PCCLD property may result in contact from PCCLD Security and/or law enforcement and may result in suspension of library privileges.
