Library "Firsts" in 2011

- Centers for New Information Technology were opened at the Barkman and Rawlings Libraries. The centers offer checkouts of the latest wireless information technologies including iPads, e-readers and laptops.
- The Pueblo Library Foundation was established, including the appointment of the board, adoption of bylaws and filing of the Articles of Incorporation. The mission of the foundation is to operate exclusively for the benefit of the Pueblo City-County Library District, including providing resources for the development, maintenance and operation of the Pueblo City-County Library District to the extent not normally met by public funding.
- The Adult Literacy Program became a regular part of PCCLD services. A pilot program was launched in 2010.
- A partnership with the Sangre de Cristo Hospice Center led to the establishment of a collection of materials on dying, death and grieving.
- The library was honored by the Government Finance Officers’ Association of the United States and Canada with a Distinguished Budget Presentation award and also received recognition for its Comprehensive Annual Financial Report.

Two girls discover a book they want to check out at the All Pueblo Reads kickoff in October.

Two boys put the finishing touches on masks they made in youth services.
Summer Reading Club 2011: One World, Many Stories
PCCLD’s award-winning Summer Reading Program continued to break records! More than 20,000 young people participated, an 18 percent increase over 2010. The program took place in June and July, but kids were asked to read all summer, and log their reading time. Prizes were awarded to each child who read and recorded it on the log. Events this year ranged from storytimes and one-to-one reading tutoring, to a touring Afro-Cuban drummer and Native American storyteller/magician.

All Pueblo Reads 2011 featuring “Hoot” by Carl Hiaasen
All Pueblo Reads concluded its seventh year. The 2011 project featured Carl Hiaasen’s award-winning book, Hoot. Participation totaled 27,354. More than 110 events and activities were held with 44 community partners throughout the month of October.

Voices of the Valley Chautauqua Festival
The second annual Voices of the Valley Chautauqua Festival was held. The library collaborated with CSU-Pueblo and Colorado Humanities to host the performances of historical characters by scholars. The festival took place under the CSU-Pueblo tent during the last week of July. Several movies were shown in the InfoZone Theatre, and Henry David Thoreau, Charles Darwin, C.S. Lewis and Walt Whitman were the featured performances. Attendance totaled 412 during the week-long festival, a 30 percent increase over last year’s inaugural festival.

Read OUT LOUD!
The second annual Read OUT LOUD! celebration took place in February. This year focused on Faith and the Electric Dogs by Patrick Jennings, and featured a Pueblo visit by the author. Nearly 1,000 kids came to see the author at several events hosted at the library, and an additional 1,699 students read the book in their classrooms. This program is endowed by the Friends of the Library.
General Fund Revenues and Expenditures

HOW THE LIBRARY IS FUNDED

Local Property Tax $7,307,351

10-YEAR HISTORY OF GENERAL FUND REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE

!Graph showing revenue and expenditure trends over 10 years

Note 1: Revenues and Expenditures are reported for each of the governmental fund types. Fund-based financial data is focused on reporting current financial resources. These are resources that are generally available for and spent on current year activities. The Library District maintains a General Fund for operational revenues and expenditures and a Capital Projects Fund for facilities improvements and expansion. The increase in revenues from 2009 to 2010 was due to a new cement plant coming on-line, resulting in an increase of property tax of nearly 8%. Expenditures remained at conservative levels.

Note 2: The Statement of Net Assets reports current and long-term financial resources of the Library District as a whole, representing the Library District’s Balance Sheet for primary government activities. Net assets invested in capital assets represent the net book value of facilities, furniture, equipment, computers, vehicles, software, books and audiovisual materials. Restricted net assets represent emergency reserve requirements. Unrestricted net assets represent cash and other net assets available for operational expenses and capital improvements. Amounts reported are net of applicable debt.

Financial information in this report is derived from the Library District’s Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR). The Library District prepares its financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). However, GAAP requires certain financial presentation and disclosures that are not included in this report. Conforming reports are presented in the CAFR and include a greater amount of financial detail, individual fund statements, and budget data.

Complete general purpose financial statements, as well as the Independent Auditor’s Report, are included in the Library District’s Comprehensive Annual Financial Report. This report can be obtained by contacting the Pueblo City-County Library District Finance Department at 719-562-5652, or visiting the web site at www.pueblolibrary.org.
2011 Library statistics and key data

• 405,359 computer log-ons (10 percent increase)
• 1,759,499 checkouts (5 percent increase)
• 1,130,546 total visits (3 percent increase)
• 124,397 holds filled (7 percent increase)
• 486,307 patrons assisted (19 percent increase)
• 107,653 total patrons registered (6 percent increase)
• 91,692 program and event attendees
• 44,043 reference phone calls

Our Amazing Friends

The purpose of the Friends of the Pueblo City-County Library District is to help the library system make educational, informational, cultural and recreational services available to the public. The Friends have existed for 52 years, and have given more than $600,000 to the library during that time. Accomplishments for 2010-11 are listed below.

Educational and Recreational Activities

The Friends had a direct, positive impact on many of Pueblo County’s youth. The Friends:

- Judged thousands of entries to annual library writing and drawing contests.
- Presented Books Again gift certificate awards for a variety of writing contests including the Creative Writing Contest, Scary Story Contest, Poetry Contest, Create Your Own Dr. Seuss Character Contest and Pueblo Girl Essay Contest.
- Donated $6,500 to the Pueblo City-County Library Districts’ Summer Reading program.
- Donated $4,000 to the youth reading program.
- Awarded a $3,000 scholarship to a library district employee seeking a master’s of library science.
- Donated $10,000 to the Library District’s All Pueblo Reads program.
- Donated $25,000 to the Pueblo Library Foundation to help start the foundation and contribute to the building of three new branch libraries.

Informational and Cultural Activities:

- The Project Selection Committee of the Friends awarded funds to 10 grant requests from Rawlings, Barkman and Pueblo West Libraries, which totaled $27,153.
- Provided $5,500 towards the printing and postage for News & Events newsletter. The newsletter is an important communication tool for informing the community of library programs, new services and Friends’ activities. The newsletter reached more than 12,000 people and organizations last year.
- Selected Frances Terrazas-Alexander, Annette Warfield, Lois Pfost and Jane Carlsen for awards at the 29th Outstanding Women’s Awards.
- Held the Annual Meeting.

To make these contributions possible, the Friends raise funds through memberships and the sale of used books.

Memberships totaled 814.

Books Again, the FOL’s used bookstore, had gross sales in 2011 of more than $111,000 and 78 percent of the net sales, after sales taxes, went to benefit the library district.

During 2011, volunteers at Books Again logged 7,269 hours in operating the store.

Since Books Again opened in July of 2005, $184,923 in Pueblo City-County Library District projects have been funded by the Friends.
