OUR VISION

Books and Beyond

OUR MISSION

We serve as a foundation for our community by offering welcoming, well-equipped and maintained facilities, outstanding collections, and well-trained employees who provide expert service encouraging the joy of reading, supporting life-long learning and presenting access to information from around the world.

MOTTO

Ideas, Imagination,
Information.

Hispanic Mural

The Hispanic Resource Center unveiled, Corazón del Pueblo, a mural created by David Oceolti Garcia based on a book written by Dr. David A. Sandoval, Spanish/Mexican Legacy of Latinos in Pueblo County. The writing of the book was funded through Colorado Humanities. The mural was funded by a donation from the Ralph Leidigh Trust.

InfoZone Re-opening

The InfoZone celebrated its grand re-opening with exciting new exhibits and fun family events! Visitors to the newsroom can now create a personalized newspaper page and learn how to report the news. The Headlines of Pueblo History exhibit features a unique way to interact with history through a Microsoft Surface, a multi-touch digital display that is controlled with the touch of a finger.

Virtual Workforce in Pueblo West

Pueblo City-County Library District celebrated the grand opening of the Virtual Workforce Center at the Pueblo West Library in a new partnership with the Rural Workforce Consortium, whose members include the Colorado Department of Labor, Colorado State Library and Colorado Workforce Center. The center will aid those who are job searching, business planning and much more!

Pueblo Libraries Get Technology Makeover

The customer service department introduced radio frequency identification and automated material handling. The goal of RFID and AMH is to enhance customer service by allowing customers to check in and check out materials almost immediately, greatly improving the accuracy of our returns and making returned materials available more quickly.

SIGNATURE PROGRAMS

READ OUT LOUD!

The third annual Read OUT LOUD! celebration took place in February. This year focused on Nathaniel Flood: Beastiologist by R.L. LaFevers and featured a Pueblo visit by the author. Nearly 1,000 kids came to see the author at several events hosted at the library, and an additional 1,699 students read the book in their classrooms. This program is endowed by the Friends of the Library.

Thousands of Pueblo's children participated in the Read OUT LOUD! program at their school.

SUMMER READING CLUB

PCCLD's award-winning Summer Reading Program — Dream Big continued to break records! More than 27,000 young people participated, an 18 percent increase over 2010. The program took place in June and July, but kids were asked to read all summer, and log their reading time. Prizes were awarded to each child who read and recorded it on the log. Events this year ranged from storytimes and one-to-one reading tutoring, to family friendly hip-hop and a magic show.

More than 27,000 kids participated in the Summer Reading Program.

VOICES OF THE VALLEY CHAUTAUQUA FESTIVAL

The fourth annual Voices of the Valley Chautauqua Festival was held. The library collaborated with CSU-Pueblo and Colorado Humanities to host the performances of historical characters by scholars. The festival took place under the CSU-Pueblo tent during the first week of August. Several movies were shown in the InfoZone Theatre, and Alexander Hamilton, James Madison, Amelia Earhart and Walt Disney were the featured performances. More than 400 people participated in the week-long festival.

More than 400 participated in the third annual, weeklong Chautauqua Festival.

ALL PUEBLO READS 2012

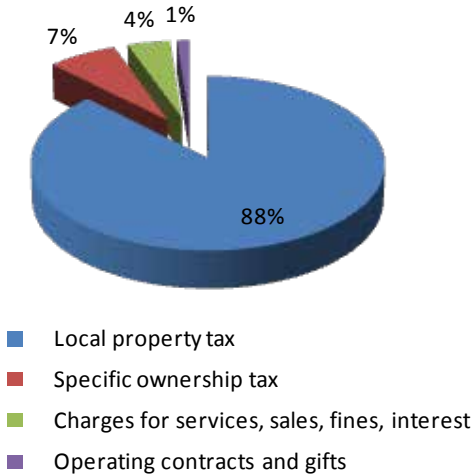

All Pueblo Reads concluded its eighth year. The 2012 project featured Kent Haruf's book, Plainsong. Participation totalled 32,576, for a total increase of 19 percent increase from 2011. The program included 93 community events, which resulted in a 69 percent increase in book checkouts during this period, same time last year.

Kent Haruf signs autographs at 8th Annual All Pueblo Reads Blacktie Ball attended by 208.

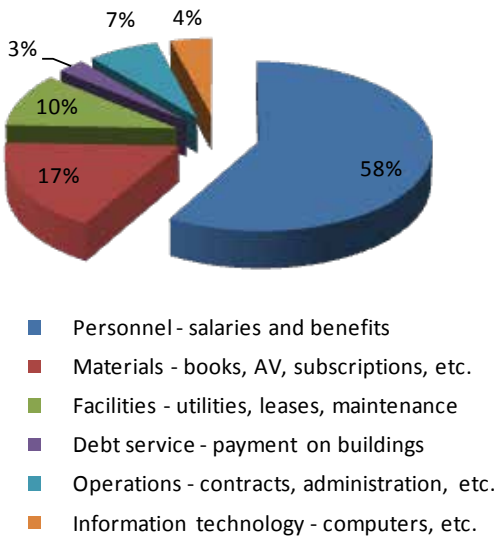

More than 32,000 participated in All Pueblo Reads, including many of Pueblo's youth.

Note 1: Revenues and Expenditures are reported for each of the governmental fund types. Fund-based financial data is focused on reporting current financial resources. These are resources that are generally available for and spent on current year activities. The Library District maintains a General Fund for operational revenues and expenditures and a Capital Projects Fund for facilities improvements and expansion. The increase in revenues from 2009 to 2010 was due to a new cement plan coming on-line, resulting in an increase of property tax of nearly 8%. Expenditures remained at conservative levels.

Note 2: The Statement of Net Assets reports current and long-term financial resources of the Library District as a whole, representing the Library District's Balance Sheet for primary government activities. Net assets invested in capital assets represent the net book value of facilities, furniture, equipment, computers, vehicles, software, books and audiovisual materials. Restricted net assets represent emergency reserve requirements. Unrestricted net assets represent cash and other net assets available for operational expenses and capital improvements. Amounts reported are net of applicable debt.

Financial information in this report is derived from the Library District's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR). The Library District prepares its financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). However, GAAP requires certain financial presentation and disclosures that are not included in this report. Conforming reports are presented in the CAFR and include a greater amount of financial detail, individual fund statements, and budget data.

Complete general purpose financial statements, as well as the Independent Auditor's Report, are included in the Library District's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report. This report can be obtained by contacting the Pueblo City-County Library District Finance Department at 719-562-5652, or visiting the web site at www.pueblolibrary.org.

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

The purpose of the Friends of the Pueblo City-County Library District is to help the library system make educational, informational, cultural and recreational services available to the public. The Friends have existed for 52 years, and have given more than $600,000 to the library during that time.

Educational and Recreational Activities

The Friends had a direct, positive impact on many of Pueblo County's youth. The Friends:

- Judged thousands of entries to annual library writing and drawing contests.
- Presented Books Again gift certificate awards for a variety of writing contests including the Creative Writing Contest, Scary Story Contest, Poetry Contest, Create Your Own Dr. Seuss Character Contest and Pueblo Girl Essay Contest.
- Donated $6,500 to the Pueblo City-County Library Districts' Summer Reading program.
- Donated $4,000 to the youth reading program.
- Awarded a $3,000 scholarship to a library district employee seeking a master's of library science.
- Donated $10,000 to the Library District's All Pueblo Reads program.
- Donated $25,000 to the Pueblo Library Foundation to help start the foundation and contribute to the building of three new branch libraries.

Informational and Cultural Activities:

- The Project Selection Committee of the Friends awarded funds to grant requests from Rawlings, Barkman and Pueblo West Libraries, which totaling more than $40,000.
- Provided $3,000 towards the printing and postage for News & Events newsletter. The newsletter is an important communication tool for informing the community of library programs, new services and Friends' activities. The newsletter reached more than 12,000 people and organizations last year.
- Selected Frances Terrazas-Alexander, Annette Warfield, Lois Pfost and Jane Carlsen for awards at the 29th Outstanding Women's Awards.
- Held the Annual Meeting.

To make these contributions possible, the Friends raise funds through memberships and the sale of used books.

- Memberships totaled 931.
- Books Again, the FOL's used book store, had gross sales in 2012 of more than $103,000 and 75 percent of the net sales, after sales taxes, went to benefit the library district.
- Since Books Again opened in July of 2005, $214,032 in Pueblo City-County Library District projects have been funded by the Friends.
