Winning Entries
2019

Pueblo City–County Library District

Winter Contest

Pueblo City–County Library District is pleased to announce the winners of the 2019 Winter Contest. Students, from preschool to adult, were invited to create their own snowman/snowflake, food, train or penguin and write a brief description of their character.

Winners received a $10 gift certificate to Books Again Bookstore, courtesy of the Friends of the Library, a booklet with all of the winning entries and a certificate of achievement. All participants received a certificate of participation. The judges were PCCLD staff members Gloria Madrill and Sara Schwartz. There were a total of 165 entries.

The library wishes to thank everyone who entered the contest and the teachers and parents who encouraged them to participate. We look forward to receiving your entries again next year!

Drew

This is my snowman named Drew. He likes to play in the snow and eat carrots.

Emma Tate

---

Cooper

'Twas the night before Christmas there was a snowman. It was a boy, his name was Cooper. He likes throwing snowballs and playing hide and seek. He has a red and yellow scarf because he wanted to be warm.

Isabella Miek

---

Hot Chocolate

My hot chocolate is hot, warm and has marshmallows. The hot chocolate that is made is from Starbucks. I made the hot chocolate with all kinds of colored paper. The size of the hot chocolate is medium-big.

Moritz Oppenrider

Untitled
My penguin lives in the Antarctica. He is large and he is nice.

Isabella Martinez

Untitled
A tree with snowflakes falling.

Kinley Phillips

Penguins
This Bob Ross portrait is a picture of penguins dancing and a snowman doing the splits on a hill.

Olivia Slackta

Melissa Cayash-Vasquez

Train

The train has lights and presents for kids that are poor. The lights are decorations. My train is a candy train and it's wheels are candy canes. My train's smoke is marshmallows. And my conductor is a gingerbread man with tree buttons. And my train passed by a big mountain.

Joe Daurio

Snalky

This is Snalky the snowman going on vacation to Alaska because it is summer in California.

Lenka Ferry

Ice Pop, Vixen and Frosty

On every Christmas Eve, the three cute friends Ice Pop, Vixen and Frosty get together. They find a tree and decorate it. They gather together and sing their favorite song, "Oh, Christmas Tree." When other people hear it, it brings joy to others.

Delilah Vigil

Untitled

This picture of the snowman is the snowman that didn't melt in the summer because the little boy who had built him was special and loved building snowmen every winter when the snow would fall.

Gabe Archuleta

Darlik and Cyberman

I drew Darlik and Cyberman all dressed up and ready for Christmas.

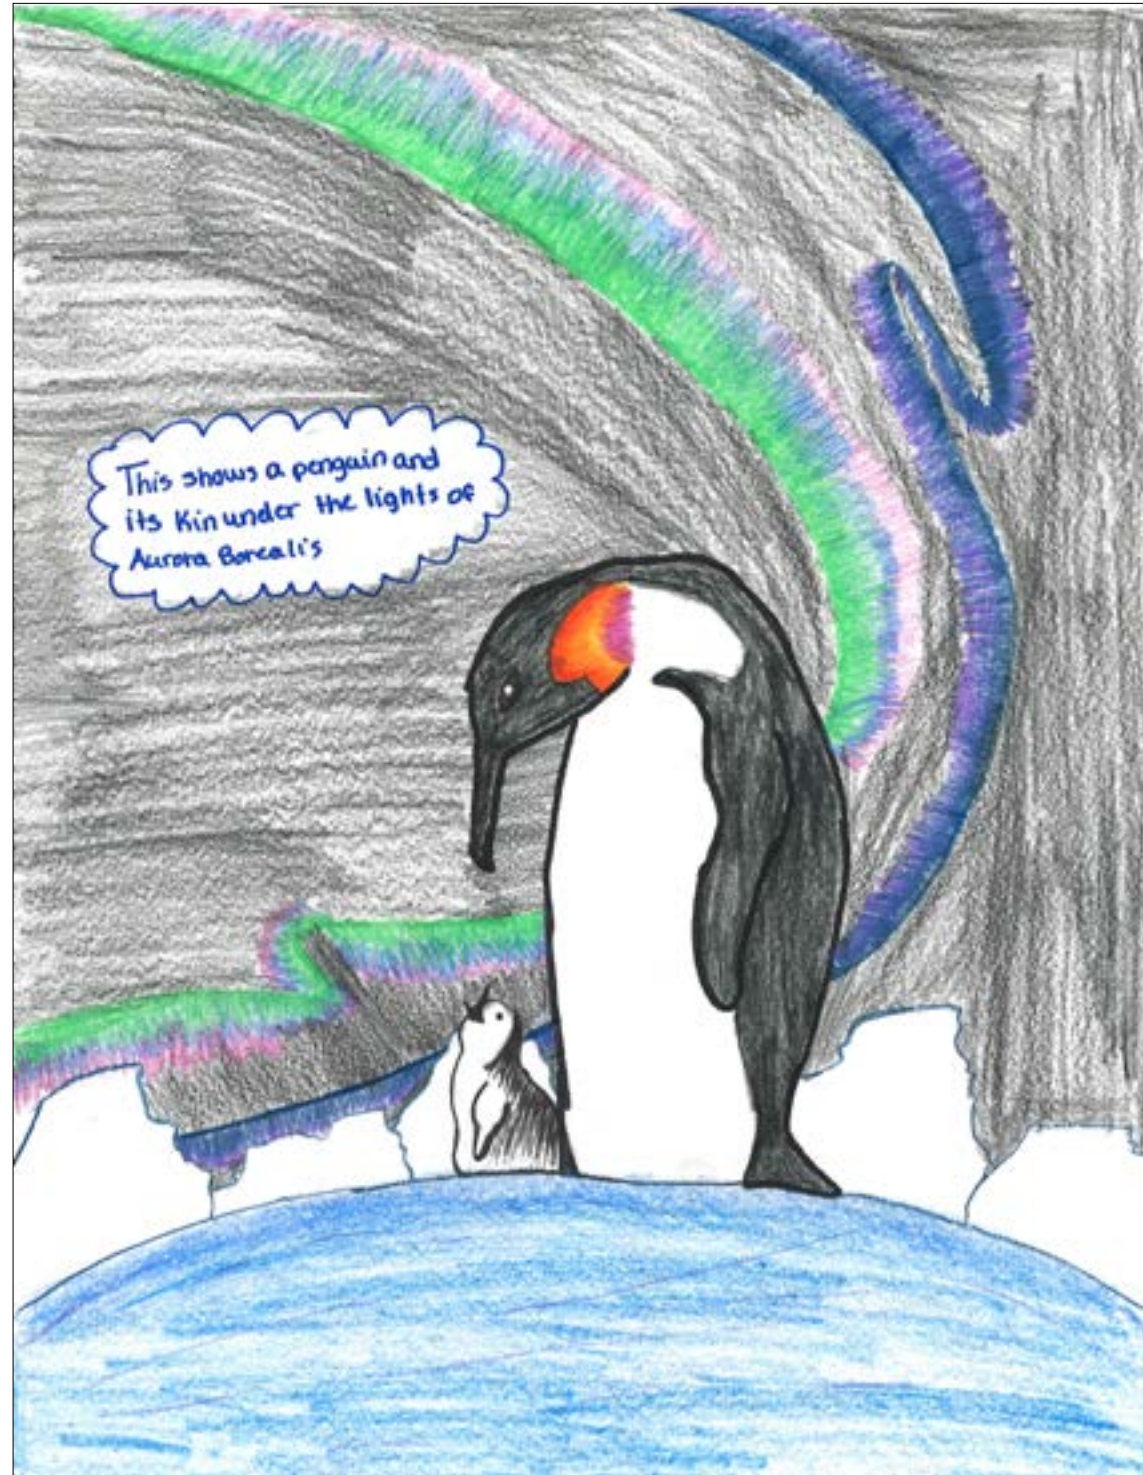

Kailey Pearson

Santa Claws

This is my Santa Claws cat. He has a candy cane collar and a mistletoe wrapped around its tail. He also has a santa hat on top of his fuzzy head as he watches Santa fly by and he has a present from Santa next to him while it is snowing. And while the sun is setting, festive lights hang above him and when Santa disappears before him he suddenly sees the North Pole.

Nkechi Onyejekwe

This shows a penguin and it's kin under the lights of Aurora Borealis.

Kylee Gardner

Tree Rex
This is a tree rex. He's a good boy.

Ayden Hildreth

Marshmallow Man

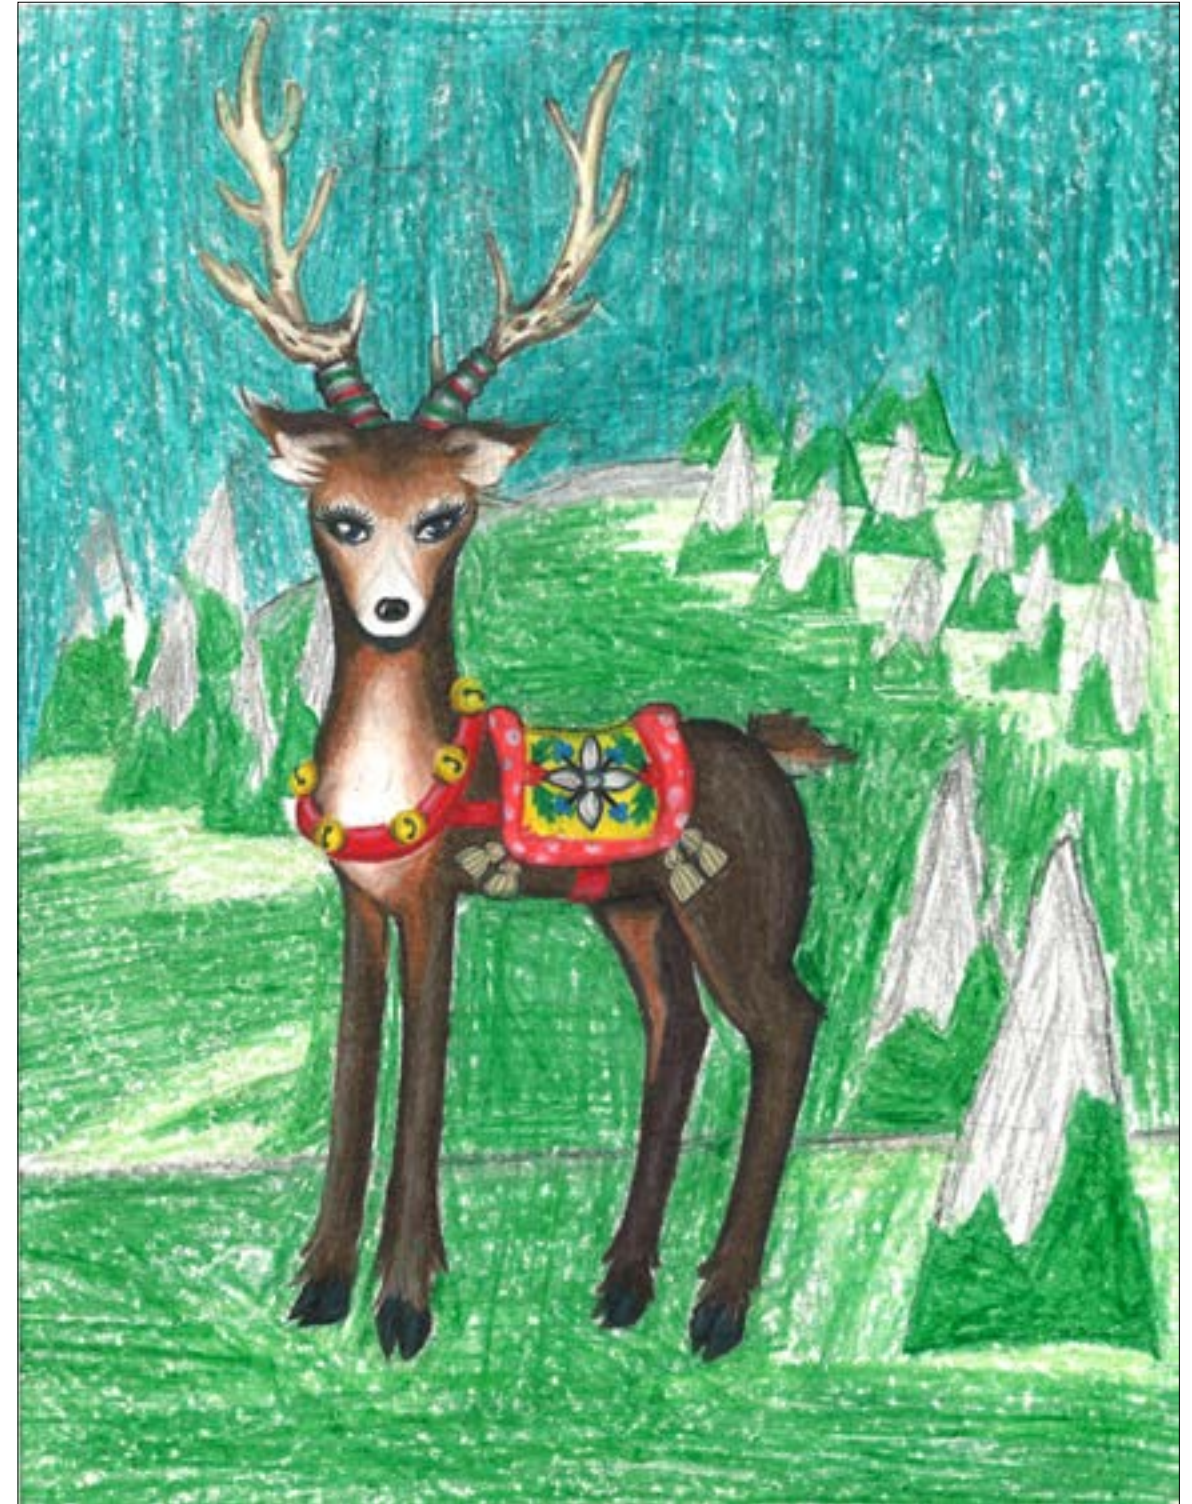

Marshmallow Man is a snowman made out of marshmallows. They aren't ordinary marshmallows though. They are as big as a German Shepherd. His buttons are chocolate chip cookies. His eyes and mouth are composed of Oreos. Marshmallow Man has stick arms and he sits on a giant graham cracker. His hat, as well as his scarf, are made out of black and red licorice. The liquid he is floating on is scalding hot chocolate. Hopefully he gets off before he melts.
