

03.05.01 Meeting Room Use Policy

PCCLD provides public access to event spaces, meeting rooms and study rooms on a reservation and first come-first served basis. These rooms are designed to offer accommodations for educational, informational, cultural, recreational and civic functions of the community in Pueblo County. The provision of public meeting rooms is one of many methods used to provide access to ideas representing all points of view on all subjects and to create welcoming spaces where all are free to explore and connect. Fees may be charged for use of event spaces and meeting rooms by the public.

The use of meeting rooms at each library will be governed by guidelines that will be administered by the Executive Director or their designee. Guidelines may vary among buildings as well as for different event and meeting spaces within each building. Users must comply with all stated guidelines and PCCLD reserves the right to revoke use privileges at any time.

I. Priorities

- A. PCCLD allows use of library event spaces, meeting and study rooms by the community when those facilities are not needed for PCCLD administrative use, activities sponsored by the Library in whole or in part, and when such use does not disrupt PCCLD programs and activities.
- B. Such permission is revocable and does not constitute a lease. PCCLD reserves the right to deny applications for use based on the availability of space or staff, frequency of use, or as deemed necessary by PCCLD's Executive Director or their designee.
- C. Library programs and library sponsored events will have priority and may lead to cancellation of public reservations if necessary.

II. Endorsement

- A. Permission to use an event space, meeting or study room does not imply an endorsement of the aims, policies or activities of any group or organization by PCCLD, nor the viewpoints expressed by participants in programs.
- B. No advertisements or announcements implying such an endorsement are permitted. However, PCCLD may elect to provide notification to the general public about a group's meeting or activity.
- C. For-profit activities are not permitted within event spaces, meeting or study rooms.

III. Equal Opportunity

- A. Activities taking place in event spaces, meeting and study rooms must not be closed to any person due to age, gender identity, race, religion, national origin, ability or any other legally protected category.
- B. PCCLD encourages all groups to use our facilities. If the meeting or event is not advertised as being "open to the public," groups using the event spaces, meeting or study rooms have the right to limit attendance, with the exception of legally protected categories. Library staff cannot be expected to enforce or ensure the privacy of any meeting or event.

IV. Liability

- A. All organizations or groups shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless PCCLD, its officers, agents and employees from and against any and all claims, suits, actions of any kind, resulting from any negligent act, omission or error of the user which results in personal injuries, or property damage arising from an individual's or group's use of a library event space, meeting or study room.
- B. The reservation holder and/or organization will be jointly and separately liable for any breakage, damage or theft of any library property caused by members of guests of the group of organization. Liability includes all applicable court costs and attorney fees.
- C. The Library, its employees and Trustees do not assume responsibility for personal injury, damage or loss of personal property during the applicant use of event spaces, meeting or study rooms.
- D. All activities and programs conducted in PCCLD's libraries must comply with all federal, state and local laws and are subject to PCCLD's rules, regulations and Code of Conduct. Groups or organizations failing to comply with any part of this policy or established meeting room guidelines may be denied further use of PCCLD event spaces, meeting or study rooms. The use of a library event space, meeting or study room signifies acceptance of the terms of this policy.

- F. Fees may be charged for the use of the Ryals Grand Event Space and for meeting room cleaning deposits. Payment in full for use of the Ryals Grand Event Space is due two weeks prior to the event. - I. After Hours Use: The party responsible for after-hours reservations must sign an agreement and receive in-person training on using the building after hours and will be responsible for securing the library during and after use. After-hours use may require payment of a refundable $50 cleaning fee deposit. Entry codes for after-hours use may not be shared or transferred to others. A/V may not be available at all locations during after-hours use.
- K. The person who makes the room reservation shall be the contact person unless specified otherwise and shall be the only person authorized to make changes and cancellations to the reservation. The contact person must be present for the reservation.

- B. PCCLD reserves the right to cancel any reservation due to unforeseen circumstances such as building or weather-related emergencies.
- C. PCCLD reserves the right to stop meetings or events that are disruptive to normal library operations or programming.

Failure to comply may result in losing future access to library event spaces and meeting rooms. Notice of cancellation must be made to the branch library where the reservation is scheduled.

3. Use/Care of Facilities and Equipment

- A. It is the user's responsibility to leave the room in the condition in which they found it and return furniture to its standard configuration. Users must remove all leftover food, containers, beverages and all other personal or group-owned items. Patrons are responsible for cleaning the room after each use, to include: depositing all trash in provided receptacles or dumpsters if available, cleaning up any spills, spot-vacuuming the carpet and wiping down tables and chairs. Failure to comply with these guidelines may result in retention of the refundable cleaning fee.
- B. Any damage done to room, property and/or equipment may result in recovery charges to cover the cost of cleaning and repairs. If unpaid, this balance will be submitted to a collection agency.
- C. PCCLD nor its employees will handle, care for or act as custodian of any equipment or property before, during or after a meeting or event. Advance and overnight storage is prohibited and exceptions must be approved by the branch manager. Meeting room users take full responsibility for their own belongings.
- D. Fire code - No open flames are allowed inside the Library. This means NO candles. No flames are allowed outside within 25 feet of the Library building. This includes cigarettes and barbeque grills. Do not block fire exits. Sterno canisters are permitted in the Ryals Grand Event Space for use with catered buffets. Fire extinguishers are provided in all meeting rooms.

- E. Decorations may only be hung using library-supplied tape. No other adhesives, staples, nails or tacks may be used. Additional prohibited items include: candles, bird seed, confetti, glitter, fireworks, etc. No decorations may be hung from the ceiling. Library staff is not available to assist in bringing in or taking out decorations or materials from private functions. All decorations and tape must be removed from the room at the end of the event.
- F. Balconies (Ryals Only) - Individuals may request access to the Ryals Grand Event Space balconies at the time when the reservation is made and when the rental agreement is signed. Use of balconies requires strict adherence to PCCLD's Code of Conduct and safety guidelines. The use of balconies can be withheld at the library's discretion at any time. Weather may prohibit use of balconies and is also subject to the library's oversight (examples: high winds, electrical storms, rainstorms, snow, etc.). Nothing should be thrown over the balcony walls at any time. Only designated furniture or items approved by the library in advance may be taken outside onto the balconies. Reservation holders are required to keep the exterior balcony doors closed to maintain proper interior temperatures. A security guard must be present anytime the balconies are in use and it is the reservation holder's responsibility to pay in advance for security guard fees.
- G. Assistive listening systems are available in the Ryals Grand Event Space and in meeting rooms at the Rawlings Library. Requests for additional assistive listening equipment can be requested with one week's advance notice.

4. Food, Refreshments and Alcohol

Catered meals/buffets may only be served in the Ryals Grand Event Space and designated branch meeting rooms.
- B. Catering - PCCLD recommends that only prepackaged food items and food prepared by a licensed vendor and/or in a commercial kitchen be provided for consumption. PCCLD library assumes no responsibility or liability for illness or injury associated with consumption of food that is not prepackaged or prepared by a licensed caterer or commercial kitchen. The reservation holder must sign a release of liability form if they plan to serve food that is not prepackaged or prepared by a licensed caterer or commercial kitchen.

Caterers and commercial kitchens that provide food for meetings or events in library meeting rooms must be licensed with the Pueblo Department of Public Health and Environment. All food brought in by the caterer must be prepared prior to bringing it into event spaces and may not be cooked onsite. The reservation holder is responsible for all arrangements with the caterer. The caterer/host is responsible for providing everything needed for the event other than tables and chairs (linens, tableware, serving utensils, water carafes, glasses and other service items). The caterer and/or host is responsible for removal of all food and catering equipment in a timely manner following the event.

- C. Alcohol - Alcohol cannot be sold in the library or served during library business hours and is only permitted in the Ryals Grand Event Space and in designated branch meeting rooms after hours. Alcohol must be served at a tended bar and it is the reservation holder's responsibility to secure any required licensing from the City of Pueblo for events where alcohol will be served. If alcohol will be served, security is required and the reservation holder is responsible for associated security fees. PCCLD reserves the right to not allow alcohol to be served at an event if one or more of the principal hosts are under the age of 21 years. Colorado State Liquor Laws require anyone who consumes alcoholic beverages to be 21 years of age or older, and that all minors under the age of 21 are prohibited from purchasing or consuming alcoholic beverages. The responsibility for compliance rests solely with the host to assure that minors do not consume or “help themselves” to available beverages at self-serve tables or left unattended at guest tables.

5. Security

- A. Library-contracted security staff are required when balconies are used, alcohol is present and may be required during events occurring outside regular business hours. There is a 3-hour minimum when security is required with an hourly fee of $25 per hour per guard.
- B. Early arrivals starting at 8am for meeting rooms at the Rawlings Library are permitted without additional security with one week’s advance notice to the Meeting Room Coordinator. The Rawlings security guard on duty will be responsible for letting early arrivals into the building. Arrangements for early entry to meeting rooms at branch libraries must be coordinated with branch staff.
- C. For events occurring after hours in the Ryals Grand Event Space at Rawlings, a minimum of two guards are required, one to remain posted at the library entrance and one on the 4th floor. One guard is recommended for every 150 guests. If alcohol is served, one guard is recommended for every 75 guests.

Use/Care of Facilities and Equipment

_____ It is the user's responsibility to leave the room in the condition in which they found it and return furniture to its standard configuration. Users must remove all leftover food, containers, beverages and all other personal or group-owned items. This includes cigarettes and barbeque grills. Do not block fire exits. Sterno canisters are permitted in the Ryals Grand Event Space for use with catered buffets.

Balconies - Individuals may request access to the Ryals Grand Event Space balconies at the time when the reservation is made and when the rental agreement is signed. Use of balconies requires strict adherence to PCCLD's Code of Conduct and safety guidelines. The use of balconies can be withheld at the library's discretion at any time. Weather may prohibit use of balconies and is also subject to the library's oversight (examples: high winds, electrical storms, rainstorms, snow, etc.). Nothing should be thrown over the balcony walls at any time. Only designated furniture or items approved by the library in advance may be taken outside onto the balconies. Reservation holders are required to keep the exterior doors closed to maintain proper interior temperatures. A security guard must be present anytime the balconies are in use and it is the reservation holder's responsibility to pay in advance for security guard fees.

Assistive listening systems are available in the Ryals Grand Event Space. Requests for additional assistive listening equipment can be requested with one week's advance notice.

Food, Refreshments and Alcohol

Light refreshments may be served. Light refreshments consist of bakery items, drinks, pre-packaged snacks and box lunches. No food preparation is allowed onsite (no toaster ovens, hot plates, air fryers, etc). Catered meals/buffets may also be served in the Ryals Grand Event Space.

Catering - PCCLD recommends that only prepackaged food items and food prepared by a licensed vendor and/or in a commercial kitchen be provided for consumption. PCCLD library assumes no responsibility or liability for illness or injury associated with consumption of food that is not prepackaged or prepared by a licensed caterer or commercial kitchen. The reservation holder must sign a release of liability form if they plan to serve food that is not prepackaged or prepared by a licensed caterer or commercial kitchen.

Caterers and commercial kitchens that provide food for meetings or events in library meeting rooms must be licensed with the Pueblo Department of Public Health and Environment. All food brought in by the caterer must be prepared prior to bringing it into event spaces and may not be cooked onsite. The reservation holder is responsible for all arrangements with the caterer. The caterer/host is responsible for providing everything needed for the event other than tables and chairs (linens, tableware, serving utensils, water carafes, glasses and other service items). The caterer and/or host is responsible for removal of all food and catering equipment in a timely manner following the event.

Alcohol - Alcohol cannot be sold in the library or served during library business. Alcohol must be served at a tended bar and it is the reservation holder's responsibility to secure any required licensing from the City of Pueblo for events where alcohol will be served. If alcohol will be served, security is required and the reservation holder is responsible for associated security fees. PCCLD reserves the right to not allow alcohol to be served at an event if one or more of the principal hosts are under the age of 21 years. Colorado State Liquor Laws require anyone who consumes alcoholic beverages to be 21 years of age or older, and that all minors under the age of 21 are prohibited from purchasing or consuming alcoholic beverages. The responsibility for compliance rests solely with the host to assure that minors do not consume or "help themselves" to available beverages at self-serve tables or left unattended at guest tables.

Security

Library-contracted security staff are required when balconies are used, alcohol is present and during events occurring outside regular business hours. There is a 3-hour minimum for security with an hourly fee of $25 per hour per guard. A minimum of two guards are required, one to remain posted at the library entrance and one on the 4th floor.
