Celebrate Black History Month with Pueblo Library District!

February is dedicated as Black History Month, honoring the triumphs and struggles of African Americans throughout U.S. history.

PCCLD celebrates Black History Month throughout February with events and programs, recommended reading, and an array of digital resources available to anyone with a valid library card.

To find a Black History Month program, look for #BlackHistoryMonth throughout the program guide.

Don't have a library card? Sign up for one today at any PCCLD location or sign up online at <https://catalog.pueblolibrary.org/MyAccount/SelfReg>

"The Right to Read" film screenings

The documentary "Right to Read" examines the stories of an activist, a teacher, and two American families who fight to provide our youngest generation with the most foundational indicator of lifelong success: the ability to read.

"The Right to Read: The Greatest Civil Rights Issue of Our Time" has three screenings throughout February at the following locations:

- Greenhorn Valley Library
Saturday, Feb. 3, noon-2 p.m.
- Rawlings Library
Saturday, Feb. 10, 3-5 p.m.
- Pueblo West Library
Friday, Feb. 16, 1-3 p.m.
Screenings are free and open to all ages.

"Right to Read" is a film by Jenny Mackenzie and is presented by Levar Burton Entertainment, Pure Edge, and the Artemis Rising Foundation.

Pueblo City-County Library District presents

OUTSTANDING Women AWARDS

Nominations due by Friday, Feb. 16, 2024

www.pueblolibrary.org/outstandingwomen

Nominate an outstanding woman

Nominations are now accepted for the Outstanding Women Awards. These awards honor women who make contributions to our community and celebrate the important role that women play in Pueblo's history. These awards are an opportunity for individuals or organizations to honor a special woman who makes an impact. The only criteria is that the woman be a resident of Pueblo County currently or during the time the award honors. They do not have to be living to be honored.

- Nomination deadline is Friday, Feb. 16 at 5 p.m.
- Awards luncheon is Thursday, March 21, 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. at Rawlings Library in the Ryals Grand Event Space
- Nomination form and lunch reservations are available at: www.pueblolibrary.org/outstandingwomen
