SUMMER READING IS HERE!

www.pueblolibrary.org/summerreading

Summer is almost here and so is Summer Reading! Kids ages 0 to 18 can start reading the books they love and earn some cool coupons and prizes, too.

Pick up a game board from any PCCLD location, do the reading challenges and one activity. Turn in the game board at any library location to get a prize and have your name entered into the weekly grand prize drawing.

The Adventure begins at your library with free programs and activities for Pueblo County youth and their families. From rock-etry to discovering nature's beauty, we have a program for everyone in the family.

Help us kickoff the fun during the Summer Reading Kickoff May 31, 3-6 p.m. at Rawlings Library, 100 E. Abriendo Ave. Then check out your favorite books. Summer Reading starts June 1.

Lake Minnequa Park and Open Space
1801 W. Pueblo Blvd
Wednesday-Friday
10 a.m.-12:30 p.m.
Kickoff Party: June 5
Wrap Up Party: July 26

Books in the Park began in 2004 as a pilot project at the suggestion of Councilman Ray Aguilera who wanted to bring library services to children who might not otherwise have the opportunity to visit the library. This innovative program using withdrawn and donated books, allows any child to complete the Summer Reading game boards even if they don't have a library card. Activities include weekly storytimes, presented by community volunteers and crafts, provided by Pueblo Parks and Recreation Department staff, round out the experience.
